Physical Therapy Holds Open House

The Physical Therapy Department of the North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill cordially invites all college students and faculty members interested in Physical therapy to attend "open house" on Wednesday, February 19, from 2:00-4:30 p. m. There will be guided tours through the department, demonstrations in the use of various pieces of equipment and their application in the treatment of patients. Members of the faculty in the Section of Physical Therapy will be available to answer questions regarding the program offered at the University — a four year college curriculum leading to a Bachelor of Science Degree in Physical Therapy.

This open house is held in conjunction with the observance of Physical Therapy Week, which has been designated by Governor Hodges as the week of February 17 in the state of North Carolina. Groups planning to attend the open house are asked to send a post card to the Physical Therapy department, North Carolina Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, to inform them of the number of persons planning to attend and their approximate time of arrival.

Classes Elect Most Typical Student

On January 15, 1958, the Sophomore and Freshman classes met separately to elect a boy and girl to represent their classes as Mr. and Miss Freshman and Mr. and Miss Sophomore.

The Freshman class elected Sharon Cline of Belmont, North Carolina, as Miss Freshman and Ed Holden of Greensboro, North Carolina, as Mr. Freshman.

The Sophomore class elected Lois Payne of Charlotte, North Carolina as Miss Sophomore and Eddy Dacus of Greenville, South Carolina as Mr. Sophomore. Our heartiest congratulations to these deserving students.

GAZING HAPPILY at each other are the king and queen of the Sweetheart Ball, Eddie Dacus and Margaret Sherrill. During the Ball, the royal couple, with their court, will be presented to the guests.

Dacus And Sherrill To Reign Over Sweetheart's Ball

On February 15, from 8:00 p. m. until 12:00 p. m. in the Campus Center Building Auditorium, the Delphians and the Nemos are sponsoring the annual Sweetheart's Ball. The Ball is to be formal, and the boys are requested not to give flowers.

The internationally known Gladiolas, recording stars for Excello records and known for their recording of "Little Darling," will provide the dance music. The entertainment will be furnished by Brevard College students. The decor will be centered around the traditional Valentine theme.

During the Ball the King and Queen, with their court will be presented to the guests. They are as follows:

Queen—Margaret Sherrill

King—Eddie Dacus

Court—Janice Brown escorted by Ted Osborne, Beverly Lambeth escorted by Bill Hall, Frances Sanders escorted by Maxwell Cox, Jerrie Mason escorted by Lloyd Hensley.

The master of ceremonies will be Donald Oglesby, popular sophomore. The faculty advisors, Mr. Ralph Reed and Miss Lucile Smith, will assist the societies. There will be several committees to cover the necessary arrangements. The chairmen are as follows:

Decorations — Jane Yoder and Charles Walsh

Programs — Maxine George and Carolyn Jones

Refreshments — Dot Williams

Entertainment — John Stuart

Lighting — Howard Martin

Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

"The Best Dressed College Girl" To Be Elected By Student Body

Glamour magazine has asked the Clarion to submit a candidate to enter their "10 Best Dressed College Girls in America" contest, the results of which will appear in the August 1958 issue of Glamour. The aim of this contest is not to promote expensive clothes, but to emphasize the importance of dressing well. It is hoped through this contest to greater stimulate neatness and individuality, and to point out that the proper selection of clothes does not hinge on high prices but on planning and ingenuity. Glamour believes that "taste, grooming, and planning are more important than money."

The ten points to be followed in the selection of a candidate are:

1. Good figure — good posture
2. Clean, shining, well kept hair
3. Carefully used make-up (not overdone)
4. Good grooming — not just neat but impeccable
5. Imagination in managing a

Methodist Mission Plans To Recruit Christian Students

A worldwide teaching and study program designed to call Christian students to new understanding and commitment to the life and mission of the church is to be launched in 1958 and continue through 1963. Initial plans for the ecumenical Protestant program were outlined to executives of the Methodist Board of Missions in New York by the Rev. Philippe Maury, Geneva, Switzerland; secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation. This program will be undertaken on behalf of its members — about 60 national, interdenominational Student Christian Movements in 57 countries. Denominational student groups in the United States will participate through the

W. C. Curriculum For Music Changed

A completely revised music curriculum will go into effect this year at the Women's college of the University of North Carolina. The new curriculum allows music majors 35 to 50 hours of electives outside the music department, as well as electives within the department. The old curriculum did not provide for music electives, and allowed only six hours of electives outside the department. The revised curriculum now offers three types of A. B. degrees: Applied Music, Music Literature, and Theory. Dean Welton Marquis of the School of Music pointed out that the A. B. degree now will enable the girl who is not planning to study for performance or teaching to get training in music as background for church work or other work where some musical training is required. Basic liberal arts requirements for the A. B. degree are the same as those for all liberal arts majors.

In addition to the B. M. degrees with a major in any instrument, voice, or music education, three new majors are now offered in the B. M. degree. Within the new curriculum it will be possible to gain a B. M. degree with a major in music history and literature, a com-
