

The Graduating Class Of 1958 At Brevard College

Glee Club Tours State, Reports Successful Trip

The Brevard College Glee Club left Saturday, May 10, on its annual spring tour, which took them to six Methodist Churches and six high schools throughout Western and Piedmont North Carolina. The tour lasted through Tuesday, May 15.

The thirty-seven voice group, under the direction of Professor Nelson F. Adams, presented programs of both sacred and secular music; Miss Elizabeth Whisenant was the accompanist.

On Sunday, May 11, the group sang at the Myers Park Methodist and the First Methodist churches in Charlotte. They sang at Lincoln High School on Monday morning and at the First Methodist Church in Maiden on Monday evening. On Tuesday morning, they presented a program at Southwest High School in Forsyth County, and that afternoon they sang at Kernersville High near Winston-Salem. The group then traveled to Greensboro, where they sang at the Bessemer Methodist church.

The Wednesday schedule included programs at Rockwell High School in Rowan County and at Winecoff High School, near Concord. In the evening they sang at the Spindale Methodist Church. The Glee Club gave a program at the Bryson City High School on Thursday afternoon and sang in Franklin at the Methodist Church that night.

Also, the group had some free time in which to attend movies in Charlotte, shop in Greensboro, and browse around Cherokee on the way home. On Saturday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights, the Glee Club members were guests in the homes of church members, and Sunday and Monday nights were spent at Mull's Motel near Hickory.

The group will present their annual concert in the Campus Center Auditorium on May 30. On the Friday evening before, all members will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adams for supper.

Graduation Will Be June 1st; Sprinkle And Grogan To Speak

Eighty-nine Brevard College sophomores are scheduled to graduate during the 1958 commencement exercises to be held on Sunday, June 1.

The festivities will begin on Saturday, May 31, at 12:30 p. m. with an Alumni luncheon and business meeting in the college cafeteria, and at that time the results of the alumni officers election will be made known. Members of the 1958 graduating class will be guests of the Alumni Association for the luncheon and will be officially welcomed into the association.

At eight o'clock in the evening, the college Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Nelson Adams, will present its annual concert in the Campus Center auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Dr. Henry C. Sprinkle, Jr., of New York City, will deliver the Commencement sermon at 11:00 o'clock on Sunday morning, in the Brevard Methodist Church.

A Carillon recital will be heard beginning at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

At four o'clock, the graduation exercises will begin in the college auditorium. Mr. Leslie S. Grogan, manager of the DuPont Silicon plant in Transylvania County will be the commencement speaker.

Following is a list of the prospective 1958 graduates:

Whisenant, Johnson Give Recital; Voice Students Will Sing

The last formal recital of the year will be presented Friday evening, May 23. This recital will feature piano and voice students of Mrs. Louise Miller, Mr. Peter Ford, and Mr. Ralph Reed. Among the performers will be Miss Donna Johnson and Miss Elizabeth Whisenant, two sophomore music students. Miss Johnson will play "Sonatine" by Maurice Ravel and "Lotis Land" by Cyril Scott. Miss Whisenant is to play "Movements Perpetuals" by Poulenc and "Jardins sous la Pluie" by Debussy.

"Loveliest of Trees", by Duke, will be sung by Janice Medford. Martha Laughlin will then sing "Dear Love, Lay Thy Hand", by Schumann; "The Lotus-flower", by Schumann, and "The Big Brown Bear", by Queen. Ann Yarbrough will sing "Pleading", by Kramer; followed by David Trucksess's rendition of "The Erl King".

Dean Bennett, Prof. Roy To Conduct Baccalaureates

It will be of interest to learn that some of the Brevard faculty and administration are participating in local high school baccalaureate services. Dr. Bennett is conducting the baccalaureate service at Enka Sunday night, June 1; and Professor Roy was asked to deliver the baccalaureate sermon at Mills River High School Tuesday night, May 27.

Miller, Dellinger, Hamilton, Wright Named As Marshals

The Clarion staff takes pride in announcing the 1958 marshals for graduation. The marshals are chosen to hold such an honor on the high scholastic record they have held all year. This year's marshals are Mildred Miller, who will serve as chief; Carolyn Wright, Myra Dellinger, and Agnes Hamilton.

Congratulations, it is quite an honor to be appointed as a graduation marshal.
