

Chris Olsen Will Reign As May Queen

Introducing the 1960-61 May Court!! Miss Chris Olsen will reign as May Queen, with Miss Brenda Edison as her maid of honor. Included in the court are Miss Carole Mappus, Miss Jeanne Morris,

Miss Anita Smith, Miss Betty Sutherland, Miss Maxie Callisher, Miss Joyce Freeman, and Miss Sandra Smith. Absent when the picture was taken was Miss Dianne Nesbitt. (Photo by Pat Austin)

Program, Dance To Highlight May Weekend

A visit to Brevard in springtime and a tour through America will highlight Brevard College's annual May Day weekend beginning Saturday, May 7.

Miss Chris Olsen of Charlotte, will reign over the festivities as May Queen. Mr. Paul Poley, also of Charlotte, will be her escort.

Miss Brenda Edison is Miss Olsen's maid of honor and will be escorted by Mr. Mike Dunn of Winston-Salem.

Others included in the May Court are sophomores Carole Mappus of Charleston, S. C.; Jean Morris of Marion; Anita Smith of Pleasant Garden; and Betty Sutherland of Asheville.

Freshman attendants are Maxine Callisher of Greensboro; Joyce Freeman of Hendersonville; Dianne Nesbit of Black Mountain; and Sandra Smith of Marion, S. C.

Miss Leone Harvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Harvin, and Mr. Ricky Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Adams, will act as flower girl and crown bearer for the queen.

"Only in America" will be the theme of the musical presentation to be given Saturday afternoon at 4:00. This program will be the story of the American heritage in song and dance and will feature Greek and Waldensian dance groups from the mountain area and dance groups and soloists from Brevard College.

Judy McManus, a sophomore from Charlotte, is the author and student director of "Only in America." Miss Barbara Sader is the faculty director.

Following the afternoon festivities, at 8:00 that evening, a formal dance will be held. Sponsored by the Wodenian, or Veteran's club, the dance is entitled "Younger Than Springtime" and features the music of the Mark-6 of Western Carolina College. Lee Creede from Concord, is the president of the Veteran's club.

WORTMAN, MAYHEW WILL LEAD STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION IN 1960-61

Manuel Wortman, a freshman from Lawndale will lead the Student Government Association as its president in 1960-61. Manuel ran unopposed for the office in the April 30 election.

Completing the slate for the coming year Don Mayhew from Mooresville, vice president; Barbara Parks from Lexington, secretary-treasurer; and Maxie Callisher from Greensboro, social chairman.

Vandalyn Brown, from Marion, will edit the CLARION, with Becky Sigmon from Conover, as business manager. Editor of the PERTELOTE will be Patsy Green of Thomasville, with Jim Wilson of Germantown, as business manager.

Chosen from the student body in a general election, the officers will be installed during an assembly period before the end of the year. The presidents of the Men's and Women's House Councils, who are also members of the SGA, will be elected before the installation service.

(See picture on page 4)

BIG SISTERS FETE

The Big Sister Organization of Brevard College met Wednesday night, May 4, for a steak supper at Berry's. Nominations for the new members of the BSO were made, and the chosen girls will be tapped in an impressive ceremony in the dorm before the end of the year.

Betty Neale of Charlotte, is the president of the Big Sister Organization.

Men's House Council Will Hold Picnic At Deerwoode

Saturday, May 14, is the date for the annual Men's House Council Picnic to be held at Camp Deerwoode. The entire student body is invited to the affair which will begin shortly after noon. Swimming will be permitted for both men and women in the afternoon. Supper will be served for everyone, and dancing will fill the bill for the rest of the evening. In the past, everyone has expressed extreme enjoyment for this affair, and we hope that this year will be no exception. Committee heads are as follows: Box Gladden, refreshments; Don Mayhew, lifeguards; Max Walser, entertainment; Bruce Taylor, cleaning; and Paul Davenport, transportation.

Francis Guffey is president of the MHC, with Bruce Taylor as vice-president and Leroy Hill as secretary-treasurer.

BLT PRESENTS PLAY

"Death Takes a Holiday," directed by Robroy Farquhar, ended the season for the Brevard Little Theatre last Friday and Saturday. Alberto Casella's play is a curious mixture of love and suspense wherein Death as a person falls in love. The show was well accepted.

Kappa Chi Holds Spring Retreat

Kappa Chi, the religious fraternity of Brevard College, held its spring retreat in Pisgah National Forest the weekend of April 30 and May 1. Although it rained the entire time, good fellowship and fun was enjoyed by all.

A serious discussion was held evaluating the year's work of the organization. Also, plans for next year's activities were made.

Fifteen people attended. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roy are the sponsors for Kappa Chi.

COLLEGE ANNOUNCES SPEAKERS

Dr. Clarence Raymond Carpenter, professor of psychology at Pennsylvania State University, will be the speaker at Brevard College's graduation exercises on May 29 at 4 p.m. Dr. Carpenter graduated from Weaver College in 1926, received his A. B. degree in 1926 and his Ph. D. in 1932 from Stanford University. He did post doctorate study, as a National Research Council Fellow, in the Institute of Human Relations of Yale University from 1932-1933.

Since 1940, Dr. Carpenter has been associated with Penn State where he is the director of Academic Research and Services.

The speaker for the baccalaureate service to be held on May 29, at 11 a.m. will be Dr. James G. Huggins. Dr. Huggins received his A.B. Degree from Wofford College, his

B. D. from Duke University, and his D. D. from Wofford. He has been associated with the Western North Carolina Conference during his entire ministry with the exception of a four-year pastorate in the North Carolina Conference. He is now minister of the First Methodist Church of Gastonia.

CARPENTER

HUGGIN