Commencement Program Will Begin On May 28

Approximately 100 candidates for graduation will participate in commencement week-end activities on May 28-29, beginning with the Annual Alumni Luncheon on May 28 and ending with the Commencement Reception on May 29.

Saturday morning, following rehearsal and preparation for commencement, the Brevard Alumni Association will honor the graduating class with a luncheon. Special guests will be Miss Lucile Smith, Miss Dulcie Hayes, and Dr. Burt W. Loomis. All candidates for graduation are required to attend the Alumni luncheon to begin at one o'clock.

Saturday evening, at eight o'clock, Mr. Nelson Adams and Mr. Ralph V. Reed of the Music department will present the annual commencement concert. Participating in the concert will be the Brevard

College glee club and orchestra.

The Commencement sermon will be delivered by Dr. James G. Huggins, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, Gastonia.

Prior to graduation, at 3:30, Mr. Nelson Adams will give a recital on the Carillon bells.

At 4:00, the candidates for graduation make their final trip down the aisle of the Sims Campus Center Building. Principal speakers for the afternoon will be Dr. E. K. McLarty, president of Brevard College, and Dr. Clarence Raymond Carpenter, professor of psychology, Pennsylvania State University.

Dr. John B. Bennett, academic dean of Brevard College, will present the honors and awards. At this time, the winners of the Olin Mathieson Scholarship, the most versatile student, the best student in history, and the Honor Roll and Dean's List will be announced.

Following, Dr. Bennett and President McLarty will award the Associates in Arts degrees and Junior College Diplomas to the graduating class.

A reception for the graduating class will be given in the faculty lounge immediately following commencement.

The marshals will usher and lead the processions at the commencement service and graduating exercises. The Reverend C. Edward Roy is the college marshal. Six academic marshals will come from the freshman class.

The CLARION, on behalf of the student body, wishes to express deepest sympathy to Sam Cannon at the death of his mother, Mrs. Samuel B. Cannon of Asheville.

BJC Board Of Trustees Will Meet Today

On Friday, May 20, the trustees of Brevard College along with their wives will be on campus. At ten o'clock the several different committees will meet, and at eleven o'clock the Board of Trustees will meet, when the plans of the Building and Grounds Committee will be presented to the trustees.

The campus ladies of the College will hold the annual coffee for the wives of the trustees from ten to twelve o'clock in the Annabell Jones Hall. Honored guests will be Miss Lucile Smith and Miss Dulcie Hayes.

Hazel Williams, a rising sophomore from Morganton, will be the president of the Big Sister Organization in 1960-61. Hazel was chosen from the new BSO candidates by the retiring group of Big Sisters.

Included in the new group of freshmen advisory counselors are two foreign students—Asta Gabrielson of Borga, Finland, and Frances Kwok of Hong Kong, China.

Others are Barbara Beverly, Kingsport, Tennessee; Vandaly Brown, Marion, N. C.; Patsy Green, Thomasville; Judy Grogan, Charlotte; Ilena King, Hendersonville; Dianne Nesbitt, Black Mountain; Linda Phillips and Barbara Pless, Kannapolis; Sandra Smith, Marion, S. C.; Londa Stout, Lancaster; Marie Teele, Shelby; and Anna Williamson, Dublin, Ga.

These girls were chosen for the BSO on the basis of scholarship (a 1.5 average), character, and personality by the faculty and the 1959-60 BSO. They will attend the Leadership Workshop prior to the new academic year and will act as sophomore advisors.

The Big Sisters will give a breakfast in the girls' dorm on Sunday, May 22, a tradition of the organization each year.
