

Sandra Smith Will Reign Over May Weekend

Commencement Speakers Are Announced

Dr. Lester F. Zerfoss, director of Industrial Relations and Management services for American Enka corporation, will be the commencement speaker at Brevard College, May 28, according to an announcement by President Emmett K. McLarty, Jr.

Dr. Zerfoss, who holds the doctorate degree in counseling from the Pennsylvania State University, is a Trustee of Brevard College, and a member of the Methodist Conference Board of Education. Also, he is chairman of the Commission on Education in the First Methodist Church of Hendersonville.

Dr. Zerfoss is active in civic affairs as a member of the Buncombe County Citizens for Better Schools and the Education Committee of the Asheville Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he serves as chairman of the Advisory Committee for the Asheville-Buncombe County Industrial Education Center.

The Baccalaureate speaker, Dr. Tuttle, is a native of Lenoir. He received his A.B. degree at Duke University where he was a member of the varsity football team for three years. From the Yale Divinity school he received his B.D. degree in 1934. Elon Col-awarded his D.D. degree in 1955.

—Turn to Page Two

The Brevard College May Queen and her court who will reign over the annual festivities at Brevard College on Saturday are pictured above. From left to right are Harriet Nelson, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mary Jo Eady, of Winter Park, Fla.; Carol Matthews, of Hendersonville; Alice Barnhill, of Charlotte; Sandra Smith, of Marion, S. C., queen; Dorothy Almy, of Vero Beach, Fla.; Sally Maynard, of Winter Park, Fla.; Barbara Ballew, of Marion, maid of honor; Evelyn Lewis, of Charlotte, and Betty Erwin, of Brunswick.

Program And Dance Will Be Highlighted

What greater pleasure could one have than a tour through the South and a brief stay on the beautiful Brevard College Campus! Would you like to join us for our annual May Day weekend beginning May 6?

The queen, Miss Sandra Smith of Marion, South Carolina, will reign over the festivities. She will be escorted by Mr. Donald Neal Mayhew of Mooresville, North Carolina.

Miss Barbara Ballew of Marion, North Carolina, is Miss Smith's maid of honor. Mr. Joseph Taylor, also of Marion, will be her escort.

The Sophomore attendants are Miss Dorothy Almy of Daytona Beach, Florida, escorted by Mr. James Neill; Miss Evelyn Lewis of Charlotte, North Carolina, escorted by Jenkins Harrill; Miss Carl Mathews of Hendersonville, North Carolina, escorted by Mr. Jack Lee; and Miss Alice Barnhill of Charlotte, North Carolina, escorted by Dale Norwood.

Freshman attendants are Miss Salley Maynard of Winter Park, Florida, escorted by Roger Brookshire; Miss Betty Erwin of Brunswick, Georgia, escorted by Roger Aldrich; Miss Harriet Nelson of Jacksonville, Florida, escorted by Jim Pyatt; and Miss Mary Jo Eady of Winter Park, Florida.

—Turn to Page Three

Smith And Henley Will Lead Student Government Association In 1961-62; Goins To Edit Clarion

Brevard Grad Named Editor Of Newspaper

Several former students of Brevard college received honors from Pfeiffer College, Meisenhammer, N. C. this past week.

Miss Judith McManus of Charlotte, N. C. has been elected editor of the Pfeiffer College NEWS. She is an English major who transferred to Pfeiffer from Brevard College where she served as Editor of the CLARION. She is a 1958 graduate of Myers Park High School in Charlotte, N. C.

Don Walser has been named Business Manager of the Pfeiffer NEWS at Pfeiffer College. Don is an accounting major and is President of the Accounting Club at Pfeiffer and a member of the Young Republican's Club on campus. He is a 1958 graduate of Reeds High School in Lexington.

Max Walser, biology major, has been named vice-president of the Pfeiffer College Student Government Association for the 1961-62 year in annual spring election at Pfeiffer. Walser has been active in the Pfeiffer Science Club and the Student Government Association.

Bill Bungardner, who attended Brevard College last year participating in many extra curricular activities, is an active member of the dramatics department at Pfeiffer.

After a series of campaign speeches at the regular Friday chapel service, April 28, the polls for the election of next year's SGA officers were opened.

Those elected to serve next year on SGA are: President, Charles Smith, Greenville, South Carolina; Vice-President, Mary Ellen Henley, Lincolnton; and Secretary-Treasurer, Jane Royster, Cherryville.

Those who had no opposition are: John Goins, Editor of CLARION, Kings Mountain; Barbara Oliver, Editor of PERELOTE, Winston Salem; Doris Lawson, Social Chairman, Winston Salem. and Juanita McKee, Business Manager of the CLARION, Mill Springs.

The campaign began several days ago with banners, posters (although the translation was impossible), and various other attention-getters. It is wonderful to note that a majority of the students did vote, thus revealing their interest in the SGA.

Curriculum To Be Expanded

A course in Russian will be offered in the Language Department next year. Also, a complete curriculum for Church Secretarial Work will be added in the Business Department.

To meet the increasing need for the study of the Russian language, colleges throughout the country are including the subject in their curricula. "We are fortunate in having a man in our midst who will conduct the course at Brevard," said President Emmett K. McLarty, Jr., in announcing the appointment of Dewey Whitaker, a Chemical Development Engineer at Olin Mathieson. Mr. Whitaker, who

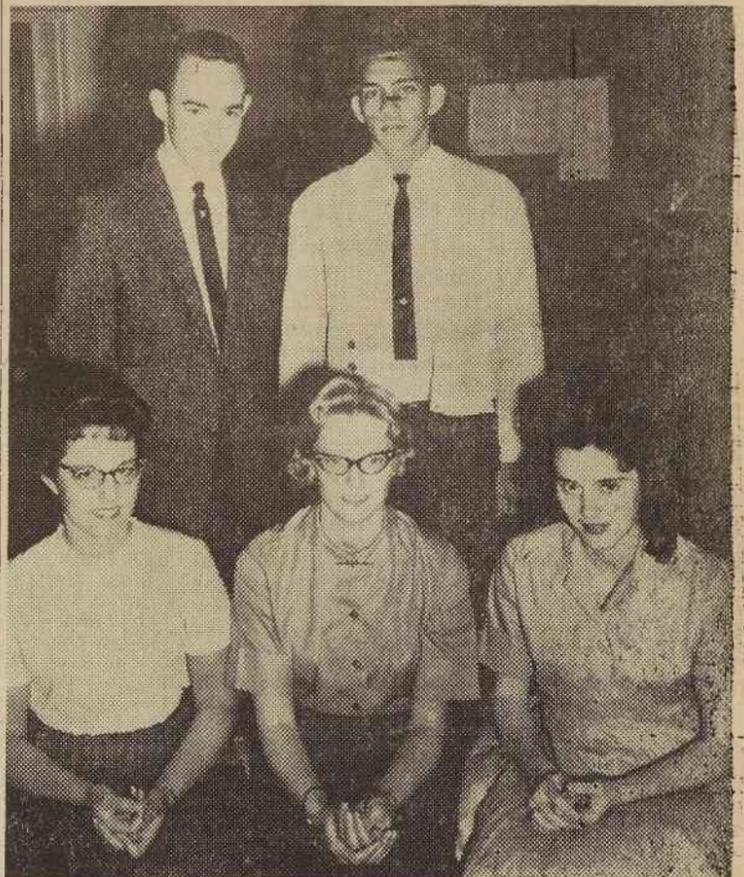

—Turn To Page Four

DR. LESTER F. ZERFOSS

DR. LEE F. TUTTLE

The Brevard College Student Government officers for the 1961-62 school term pictured above are, seated: from left, Barbara Oliver, of Winston-Salem; Jane Royster, of Cherryville; and Juanita McKee of Mill Springs. Standing are Charles Smith, of Greenville, and John Goins, of Kings Mountain. Not pictured are Mary Ellen Henley, of Lincolnton, and Doris Lawson from Winston-Salem.