Classes To Begin Again On Jan. 3

Students, faculty, and administration will leave Brevard College for their homes tomorrow for the annual two week Christmas vacation.

In order to facilitate transportation difficulties, the holidays will be observed this year at Brevard from the 16th of December till the 3rd of January, 1962.

By every means of transportation conceivable — train, car, plane, and out-stretched thumb, B. C. students will spread out across the nation to their individual homes.

Classes are due to resume Wednesday morning, January 3, 1962.

Brevard Christmas Parade Is Termed "Best One Ever"

One of the most spectacular parades in Brevard's history marched through its streets before hundreds of spectators on the afternoon of November 30, 1961.

Over 30 colorful and entertaining floats and units were presented by the leading establishments of the town. The bands of the Brevard, Canton, and Hendersonville high schools marched and played Christmas carols. Santa Claus came to town atop one of the biggest floats and had candy for all his little friends.

Brevard College was well represented at the gala occasion. Miss Sally Maynard, the Homecoming Queen, and Miss Shirley Hammill, Miss Brevard of 1961 were among several of the beauty queens who participated. Brevard College's cheerleaders furnished entertainment with their spirited antics.
