

Thanksgiving Banquet Begins Holiday Season

The Christian Council sponsored a Thanksgiving Banquet for the students and faculty of Brevard College on Tuesday, November 24, from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The Christmas Council is composed of the presidents of the Baptist Student Union, the Canterbury Club, Kappa Chi, the Methodist Student Fellowship, and the Westminster Fellowship.

Members of Phi Theta Kappa served as ushers for the occasion.

The meal was served banquet style in the cafeteria. The tables were decorated with arrangements of fruit and greenery.

The menu for the banquet consisted of sliced turkey, green beans, candied yams, cranberry sauce, pumpkin pie, and iced tea.

After the meal, a program was presented which began with a welcome by Joyce Van Hook, President of the Christian Council, and an invocation by Charles Teague.

The musical part of the evening began with group singing, led by Mr. Adams. Next, Miss Moser and Miss Jarrell presented three folk songs: "Springfield Mountain," "The Bulgine Run," and "Turn, Turn, Turn," accompanying themselves on guitar and dulcimer. They also gave a brief history of each song.

Following this, Charhe Koontz read Psalms 105, verse 1 and Psalm 100. Doug Tanner led in prayer.

The highlight of the evening was a "Chalk Talk" by President McLarty. He drew the famous picture Praying Hands as Dean Harris read George

NUMBER 5

Freshmen Display Talent Tonight

The Freshman Class of Brevard College is presenting for the first time a Talent Show. It will be held on December 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Campus Center Building.

Contestants for the show were selected by tryouts which were held on Nov. 20, in Dunham Hall. Anyone who wished to enter was asked to contact Jo Ann Alderman, Doug Tanner, or David McPherson. The contest was open to all Brevard College students.

The Freshmen hope that this will become an annual event. Admission is only twenty-five cents, and all proceeds will go toward the May Dance, which the Freshmen sponsor.

Spanish Students See Travelogue

The Brevard College Spanish Club heard the famous legend hunter, Romain Wilhelmsen speak at Lee Edwards High School, in Asheville, Thursday, November 19. Twenty-four students went by bus to hear Mr. Wilhelmsen and to see a movie "Yucatan Trial." The program was one in a travel and adventure series sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Asheville.

The movie was on lost cities and remote civilizations in Mexico, Central and South America. By film, the student visited a Spanish fort, castles, abandoned pirate plantations, Maya cities, and a 1000-year-old tomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Perez were advisors on the trip.

Basketball Season Begins

The 1964-65 basketball season opened Thursday. Coach Martin has a 21-game scheduled set up for his team. They will also play in the Christmas Tournament in Binghamton, New York, and the W.C.J.C.C. Tournament at Forest City, North Carolina.

There are three returning lettermen and nine freshmen. Returning at forward is Larry Burch. Larry is 6 feet, 2 inches tall, a 180 pounder from Dublin, Georgia, average 19 points a game last year in N.J.C.A.A. Tournament.

The other returning forward is Sherman Fearing. Sherman, from Durham stands 6 feet 3 inches tall and weighs 195 pounds.

The third sophomore is Bruce Smith. Bruce is 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. He plays guard and comes from Washington, D. C.

There are two freshmen centers on the team. They are Jim Hammond from Cummings, Ga., and Steve Shoemaker from West Jefferson, N. C. Jim is 6 feet, 7 inches tall and weighs 195 pounds. Steve is 6 feet, 6 inches tall and weighs 210 pounds.

The three freshmen forwards are Joe Nesbitt from Waynesville, who stands 6 feet, 4 inches and weighs 180 pounds. Six foot five inch tall Larry Runion lives in Great Falls, S. C., and weighs 196 pounds. The third forward is Bob Stamey from Statesville. He weighs 167 pounds and is 6 feet 4 inches tall.

Dennis Houston, Duane Morgan, David Morrow and Bob

President E. K. McLarty and Dean Braxton Harris have spent the first part of this week in Louisville, Kentucky, attending a meeting of the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. They returned to Brevard on Thursday.

Brevard Choir Tours

The college choir travelled to Murphy, N. C. on Saturday, November 21. The choir had a rehearsal that night. On November 22, the choir sang in the First Methodist Church in Murphy. At 5:30, the choir sang in Andrews, N. C. In both services, Mary Aiyce Janda was the organist and Diane Lovelace was the accompanist. The choir sang anthems of praise, prayer, and advent. The madrigal singers sang during the worship service and also provided the scripture reading.

Pickens are the four freshmen guards. Dennis comes from Franklin, N. C. is 5 feet 11 inches and weighs 165 pounds. Duane Morgan is 6 feet 3 inches tall, and weighs 168 pounds and hails from Enka. David weighs 177 pounds, stands 6 feet 2 inches tall and hails from Gastonia. Bob Pickens comes from Winfield, West Virginia. He is 6 feet 2 inches tall and weighs 170 pounds.

The material is there, as well as the excellent coaching of Chick Martin. All that is needed is the support of the student body. So let's all go to the game tomorrow night and help the boys get to Hutchinson, Kansas, again this year.

Hubner Places In NJCAA Meet

On November 14, Brevard's John Hubner participated in the National Junior College Athletic Association cross country meet, in Jackson, Michigan. John placed a very respectable fifteenth out of a large field. This is the best a Tornado Harrier has ever done in this meet.

John finished less than one minute behind the winner. This was the first time he had run on a course of more than three miles.

Parade Opens Yuletide Season

Brevard's annual Santa Claus parade on December 1 officially opened the Yuletide season for townspeople and college students alike.

Clowns, pretty girls, and ten lovely floats provided the entertainment for a crowd that is estimated as the largest yet to observe a Christmas parade in Brevard.

Freezing weather failed to dampen the enthusiasm of hundreds of townspeople and college students who lined the curbs to watch the festivities.

Christmas music with a beat was provided by the high school bands from Brevard and Hendersonville. A cheerful note was provided by high school majorettes in bright red and white outfits.

Of special interest to college students was the appearance of Brevard's Homecoming Queen, Miss Billie Hazelton, and her two attendants, Donna Nichols and Sharon Ashworth.

Glee Club Spreads Christmas Cheer

On Thursday and Friday, December 3 and 4, the Glee Club is singing at high schools in Henderson County. On Sunday, December 6, the club will travel to Asheville and will sing at the Central Methodist Church. They will also sing at the Asheville District Conference at 3:30 on that day. Sunday night, they will sing at the Methodist Church in Greenville, S. C. On the Glee Club Tour, Tony Argo will be the accompanist and Diane Lovelace, the assistant accompanist.

On December 15, the college Glee Club will sing for a broadcast to be shown on television. The Glee Club program will be broadcast on WSPA-TV, Spartanburg, on December 20. The program will consist of Christmas music.

BLT Opens Season Tonight

The Brevard Little Theater begins the 1964-65 season tonight and tomorrow night with the presentation of "Bus Stop." The B.L.T. will give three plays this year; the third will be Rodgers and Hammerstein's musical "The King and I."

Student memberships in the B.L.T. are only $1.50 for the season. This entitles the member to admission to all three plays; or, if they prefer, they may use all three admissions on one play. Obtain tickets from Larry Davis.
