

Actor, Director To Host Festival

Director Takes Leave Of Absence

Mrs. George Walker is not expected to return as director of Green Dormitory this semester. Due to the serious illness of her daughter she has taken leave in order to take care of three grandchildren. It is hoped that she will be able to return to her position this summer.

In her place Green Dormitory welcomes Mrs. Erma Hasselman. Mrs. Hasselman is originally from New York State. She attended Columbia University and is a member of Gamma Alpha Chi. Business has been her main occupation.

Green Dormitory appreciates Mrs. Hasselman's concern and is looking forward to completing a good semester.

Four Students Are Attending Conference

Four Brevard College students left late Wednesday night to attend the 1969 College Editors' Conference sponsored by the United States Student Press Association. The conference will be held until Sunday evening.

The four students are Wayne Morton and Ronnie H. Smith, editor and associate editor, respectively, of the Clarion staff, and Bill Payton and John Lum, president and vice-president, respectively, of the SGA.

The conference, which is being held at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D. C., has as its main topic "The Economics of Social Disorder" and will offer small discussion groups to speak to various well known men.

Briefings will be held on Thursday and Friday at the CIA offices in Langley, Va.,

The Pentagon, State Department, Brookings Institution, Urban Coalition, International Association on Chiefs of Police, the Urban Lands Institute and in other areas. Also scheduled for Thursday and Friday were interviews with several Cabinet Secretaries.

Muhammad Ali will discuss cinema verite in terms of a film on his own transition from Cassius Clay to Muhammad Ali. He will also make comments on the accompanying social conditions.

Friday afternoon's discussion groups will address themselves to the problems related to the growth of the economic independence for the black people in America. To be questioned in this area are men such as Roy Innis, head of CORE; Marion Berry, chief of Washing-
—Turn to Page Two

Three Full-Length Films Will Be Shown

Mr. Van Keyser of Dabney S. Lancaster Community College will be the host for a film festival, on Friday and Saturday of next week.

The film to be shown are "Whistle Down the Wind," Friday at 7:30; "David and Lisa," Saturday at 2:30 and "La Strada," Saturday night at 8:00.

"Whistle Down the Wind" is a film about children who believe Christ has returned to earth. The man who claims to be Christ is really an escaped convict. The power of a child's belief is vividly expressed in this picture.

Shot in Philadelphia, "David and Lisa" portrays an emotionally disturbed boy who meets a fifteen year old girl in a mental home. Through the help of a doctor, the two young people begin to understand things around them.

The third film, "La Strada" (The Road) is an Italian play. It is the story of a man's loneliness and his search for the meaning in his life.

Mr. Van Keyser received his B. A. degree in English from Emory and Henry College, in Virginia. He received his M.F.A. degree in dramatic art and speech from Virginia Commonwealth University.

He has appeared in a number of plays including "As You Like It," "Ondine," and "John Brown's Body."

Mr. Van Keyser has directed such plays as "The Sandbox," "Archy and Mehitabel," and "Ten Little Indians."

Presently working as director and resigner for the College Players' at Dabney S. Lancaster Community College, he also teaches drama and speech.

This summer Mr. Van Keyser plans to tour England and Ireland and study the theater while he is there.

Spring Court Is Announced

Mr. and Miss Sophomore, and Mr. and Miss Freshman, and also the members of the Spring Court were announced in an assembly Tuesday night.

Mr. and Miss Sophomore are Gary Cross, of Topton, and Miss Jackie Tyler from Charleston, S. C.

Mr. and Miss Freshman are Ken Eaton, from Mocksville, and Miss Jeanette Land, from Asheville.

The Sophomore members of the Spring Court are Nancy Harrington, Terry Sherrill, and Linda Smith.

The two freshman attendants are Janice Carter and Terri Venable.

"A New Look" Will Be Topic

"The Church Must Take a New Look at Drinking, Drunkenness and Alcoholism" will be the topic of Dr. Wayne Womer at chapel on February 26. Dr. Womer will be on campus through Friday evening, and will eat most of his meals in the cafeteria, so students may discuss these and other relevant questions with him.

Any group, club, dorm, or just interested people may ask for him to speak with them, and can be scheduled through Dean Burgess.

He will bring with him, movies, regarding use of drugs and alcohol. The movies will be available to all, and the schedule of their showings will be posted by February 20.

On Friday afternoon, February 28, at 4:00 Mr. Womer, Mr. Coan, and Mr. Godey will have a panel discussion on drugs and alcohol for all students to ask questions.

BC Welcomes New Students

Thirteen new students were admitted to Brevard college for the second semester.

The students are as follows: Sandra Jean Allison of Horse Shoe; Jacob Watson Brock of Chapin, S. C.; William Forrest Broom of Charleston Heights, S. C.; Charles Lawrence Dougherty of Greenville, S. C.; William Christ Hegele of Wilmington; Robert Hulen Justice of Hendersonville; Bruce Mitchem of Rutherfordton; Sanford Olson of Cola, S. C.; James Lamar Pettit of Brevard; William Burnley Spencer of Stafford, Va.; Cindy Sherrill of Winston-Salem; Robert Edward Wood of Greensboro; and Hugh Walker of Northridge, Cal.

SGA Seeking Nominations

The Student Government Association is seeking nominations for the two vacant offices of Social Co - Chairman.

Students interested in seeking the offices should contact an SGA member and attend the SGA meeting Wednesday after chapel in the conference room of Beam Administration Building.

Social Behavior Committee Will Hold Final Open Meeting

The Committee on Social Behavior has on its agenda only one more meeting for students. This meeting will be February 18 in the student lounge. The Committee has expressed that it would like to hear from all interested students, particularly those who are satisfied with the present social situation at Brevard College.

This will be the last opportunity for students to express their opinions on the social codes and rules of Brevard College before the recommendations are submitted by the committee.

THE MADRIGALS AND BEN RAMSAUR will present a recital tonight at 8:00 p. m. in Dunham Auditorium. Ramsaur, under the instructor of Mr. Thomas Cousins, will offer a voice presentation and will be accompanied by Miss Linda Winslow on the piano. Miss Winslow is under the instructor of Miss Harriet Herring. Miss Virginia Tillotson will direct for the Madrigals.