Cross Country Ranked Sixth

Brevard, N.C. — On Oct. 21st, Brevard College captured a 22 team Dupage Invitational meet held in Glen Ellyn, Ill. Teams from Kansas, Illinois, Michigan, Missouri, Wisconsin, Indiana and North Carolina were represented. Brevard won the team title with 62 points followed by Macomb (Mich.) 85, Jackson (Mich.) 88, Wright (Ill.) 88, and Haskell (Kansas) 115, rounding out the top five teams.

Brevard's Jeff Wentworth ran a very fine competitive race staying with the front pack most of the way, finishing only 14 seconds behind the leader in 4th place. John George ran well for Brevard finishing in 10th place, followed closely by Tim Black in 12th place. Tim Black, last year's All-American, is hopefully regaining some of his strength, after being sidelined with a virus infection, most of the season. Greg Boyd who is vastly improving, finished in 14th place with a very strong 3 miles, after being boxed in for nearly 2 miles. Brevard's other scorers, Todd Murphy finished 22nd, to give Brevard the title. Both Charles Fisher 52nd and John Traynor 57th, were off their usual pace due to the after effects of the flu.

"Everyone ran a very competitive race, knowing they must do so in order to win the meet," said Coach Norm Witek. "It was a very satisfying victory."

The Tornados Harriers' travelled to Bristol, Tennessee, on October 28th, for a triangular meet with King College and Vanderbilt University, and Brevard was victorious over these two squads, defeating King 45-21, and Vanderbilt by the same score.

The Tornados' Jeff Wentworth set a new course record 27:11 over the 5.1 mile layout. John George finished third for Brevard with 27:46. The Tornados overall record is now 8-0 and they are ranked 6th in the nation, among junior colleges. The next meet for Brevard is the Region X meet. But, the only thing that the Tornados have in sight is the National meet, held on November 11th, in Champaign, Illinois.

Cagers Prepare For Season

John Meyerhoff's basketball Tornados got their first taste of intercollegiate basketball for 1978-79, "Bulldog style". The Tornados travelled to Boiling Springs for workouts Oct. 17th and 18th and found out why the Gardner Webb Bulldogs are perennial powers.

"We went in there in awe of the place", said the Tornado mentor, "and they really wore us out physically. They are bigger and stronger, starting a front line which measures 6'10", 6'8" and 6'6" and we played the lambs role Tuesday night."

During the first evening of scrimmage, the Bulldogs and Tornados played four 15 minute periods. Gardner Webb won each of the first three periods by margins of 13, 1 and 9 points and the Tornados won only the last when only freshmen played. Benton Wade and Larry Jewell gave an impressive performance for the Tornados and outplayed their counterparts. However, Lewis Young, a 6'6" G-W senior forward, wore out the nets and proved to be the difference.

On Wed. afternoon, the Tornados decided they could play with the Bulldogs. With the varsity teams playing against each other, Brevard defeated Gardner Webb in each of the first two periods.

On October 23rd, Brevard travelled to Hickory to scrimmage the Lenior-Rhyne Bears and the Tornado hoopsters came away with convincing wins in each of the twenty minute periods. The Bears, who are usually powers in District 26 of the NAIA are in the midst of a rebuilding season under new coach Neil Hodges proved to be no match for the Tornados. The Brevard front line composed of 6'8" Benton Wade, 6'9" Larry Jewell and 6'2" James McCleave dominated play under the boards.

October 27 and 28, the Tornados scrimmaged the always tough Blue Hose of Presbyterian College at Boshamer Gymnasium. In the first scrimmage on Friday night, Presbyterian defeated Brevard in two of three twenty minute periods, by margins of 1, and 13, while the Tornados won the last period by 19 points. Exceptional performances were turned in by point guard Kevin Herron and guard Brian Horton. On Saturday morning Brevard turned the tables on the Blue Hose with victories of 14 points in two twenty minute periods, while Presbyterian won one by a margin of 5 points.

The Tornado Cagers will be officially introduced to the community on November 4th when they play the annual Blue-White game in Boshamer Gymnasium during the second annual parents weekend.

"I was extremely pleased with our improvement", said Meyerhoff. "Needless to say, the Tornados impressed at lot of people. In the afternoon scrimmages, we didn't play Benton Wade due to a slight knee injury the night before. 6'8½" Larry Jewell and 6'7" Moose Timberlake just did a fantastic job. Scott Harper a 6'3" guard and point guard Kevin Herron also played extremely well".
