

Steve Rabey is a freshman at Brevard College. He has been active in photography for about seven years and has worked professionally on occasion. He is a music major and plays trombone in the Jazz Band, Concert Band, and likes to jam on the bass guitar. Among some of his other interests are creative writing, soccer and mountaineering. After graduating from Brevard he plans to study photography and then possibly make a dual profession of music and photography.

