On October 11, the BC Roadrunners finished behind three ACC teams in the North Carolina State Intercollegiate Championships in Carter Findley Stadium. NC State's team, which includes three former Brevard College runners easily won the meet with 31 points. NCSU was followed by Wake Forest University with 57 points, Duke University with 100 points, and Brevard College with 102 points.

Brevard's best showing came from Patrick O'Grady who finished 11th with a time of 25:31 over the rough 5,000 meter course.

Glenn Roach finished 16th and Charlie Purser finished 17th with times of 25:46 and 25:49, respectively. According to Brevard Cross-Country Coach Norm Witek, "All three men have run well all season and are good candidates to earn All-American honors."

Rodney Curry and Henning Brandt are still recovering from ankle injuries, which, according to Witek, are taking a toll on Brevard's finishing strength. Curry finished 28th and Brandt finished 30th, 50 seconds behind front runner O'Grady.

Other BC entries included freshmen David Coulter, who placed 31st; Randy Ashley, who placed 32nd; and Winston Brown, who placed 33rd. David Mays finished 46th and Charles Hinkle, who finished 54th, rounded out the Brevard squad.

On October 20, the team competed in the University of North Carolina at Charlotte Invitational. Brevard easily outdistanced her competitors to win the meet with a total of 22 points. Rounding out the top five were Georgia State with 80 points, Western Carolina University with 126 points, Virginia Commonwealth with 134 points, and Pembroke State with 139 points.

Brevard exhibited fine team performance as only 23 seconds separated the top five Brevard runners and less than a minute elapsed among the finishing times of BC's top nine. Phil Roberts of Western Carolina won the 5 mile race in 25:07. He was challenged until the last seconds of the race by Brevard's Patrick O'Grady who finished second with a time of 25:22. Brevard's Rodney Curry finished fourth and was followed by teammate Charlie Purser, 5th, Henning

Brandt, 6th, and Glenn Roach, 7th.

Brevard received additional strength from the grouping of David Coulter, who finished 11th; Randy Ashley, who finished 12th; David Mays, who finished 13th; and Winston Brown, who finished 14th. Brevard's second grouping logged times within 19 seconds of each other.

Ladies Prepare for Season

By Julie Thompson

Brevard's girl's basketball team is anticipating a successful season, with seven strong returning sophomores and six very promising freshmen making up this year's team. Coach Mary Ann Sunbury sounded very enthusiastic about the team's progress on the court after their first on-court scrimmage practice.

"The team is strong," said Sunbury. "All the girls know what they're doing which is a good sign so early in the season." The actual season doesn't begin until November 17 when Brevard hosts Warren-Wilson.

On November 3, the girls will play a blue/white game displaying their teamwork for parent's weekend. There will be two tournament games before Christmas against Wofford and Warren-Wilson and at the end of February, Brevard will host the Conference Championships. "Regionals are in the first week of March, and I expect that the girls will play well enough to make them," speculates Sunbury.

Sophomore players to be watching for are: Sheila Gibson (guard) who was voted All-region last year, Angie Vickers (post), voted to All-division last year, Ivet Concepcion (post) Julie Hartley (post), Robin Williams (wing), Pam Lyons (wing), and fartane (wing), Joy Ford (wing), Masayo Suzuki (wing), and Teresa Clark (post).

Carmen Nelon (post). Freshmen players are: Susan Seymore (point guard), Sylvia Alberey (point guard), Lynn Mac-
