

*While
you were away . . .*

Music Professor Tony Sirianni works with Kym Catoe during the School for the Gifted Student in the Arts (left). Yes, that's Fine Arts Chairman Ginny Tillotson cutting up during a SGSA assembly (below). The campus was filled with dancers and more during the Festival of the Arts (above). Grads like Mike McFarland of Chapel Hill enjoyed visiting with former teachers like English Professor Clara Wood (right). BC grads, old and young, rode in the gala Brevard 4th of July parade (bottom right). And of course there's always the cool green forest—"Coliday" student Franklin Hepler of Clemmons, N.C., heads for a watery landing at Sliding Rock (far right).

