

Brevard College cheerleaders are cosmopolitan

By Melissa Miles

This year there will be something new at the Brevard College basketball games — one sophomore and seven freshmen who make up the 1986-87 cheerleading squad.

After learning chants and cheers for two weeks, the work culminated Sept. 30 as 12 girls performed a group chant, an individual chant and cheer, and anything extra such as a cartwheel or a split.

That same night the points were totaled and the results showed a cosmopolitan team whose members are: Cindy Edmonson, Sarasota, Fla.; Nikki Johnson, Roanoke Rapids; Rachel Makupson, Thomasville; Ann McDaniel, Mechanicsville, Va.; Melissa Miles, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Gina Pardue, Elkin; Yoshiko Sato, Chiba, Japan; and Sharon Sentz, Miami, Fla.

Since tryouts the squad has been practicing four days a week, as well as selling ads to local merchants to raise funds for new uniforms. The ads were placed on a poster along with a picture of the cheerleaders and the men's basketball team. The poster will be given to the fans at half-time.

Although the squad's experience ranges from none at all to nine years, freshman Rachel Makupson feels that the team has a lot of potential.

"There's a lot of talent on the team, and with drive and dedication we can go far."

Aside from cheering for the men's and women's basketball teams, the cheerleaders have been making banners to be hung in the gym before each game and are planning to sing the national anthem before one of the games.

Since there were no cheerleaders during the basketball season last year, the squad is not exactly sure what everyone is going to expect. Sophomore Nikki Johnson summarized their feelings, "We're all really excited about the start of the season and we've got a lot of hard work ahead of us, trying to pull it all together, but I think we'll do a great job."

"ROUGH, BUT FUN" said Steve Cain when describing the intramural football championships. The championships were held on Nov. 20, after two days of play-offs.

The Green Gunkies were up against the Taylor Watergates, and the playing conditions were muddy and wet. Even though conditions weren't ideal, Captain Hal Gordon of the Green Gunkies, led his team to victory. The final score was 19-0.

Freshman Chip "Hit Man" York said that intramurals were interesting and fun. "The last game got to be too serious," added freshman player Warren Nance. Both players commented on their tough opposition, the Taylor Watergates.

Players for Green included: Chip Robinson, Chip "Hit Man" York, Warren Nance, Darrand "Peanut" Richards, Brian

Sewell, Jim Poovey, Kyle Glasgow, Graham Faris, Joe Watson, Sean Juman-Singh, Robert Cooler, Ricky Surles, and Steve Cain.

Goons win volleyball crown

The intramural games began on Monday, Nov. 17, and after the first week of competition, the Beam team occupied first place, followed by the Goon Platoon in second, the Faculty team in third and the Green Jones team in 4th.

But after holding onto the number one spot, the beam team lost its grip on victory as the Goon Platoon team beat them out in the championship finals held last Wednesday. The two teams played the best two out of three games and the score of the final game was 16-14.
