when I won't get half that when I sell it back?

5) Why are there so many people from Florida here?

6) Why is there no change machine on campus when so many things on campus require change?

7) Why does the water in the shower change temperatures only when I'm rinsing the shampoo from my hair?

8) Why haven't I gotten any mail yet?

9) Why are meals served only when I'm not hungry?

10) How come I never see any of the guys on the football team?

The list is endless. I could question the system forever. The only problem is I'd never get my answers. We're all victims of circumstance. But if there's one thing life offers, it's a choice. You've always got a choice. You can go left, or you can go right. You can go up, or you can go down. You can adjust, or you can go home. My parents rented my room out when I left, so I guess I'll stay here. Tell you what— you stay here too and I'll see what I can do about making it a little easier...or at least a little funnier.

Taylor Hall's Matt Stevenson of Davidson gets a victory ride after his win in the Jello-eating contest.
