Lady Tornadoes drop two

by Warren Nance
Clarion Reporter

The Brevard College Lady Tornadoes basketball team found Louisburg College and Truett-McConnell College too much to handle at home with losses of 50-108 and 59-67, respectively.

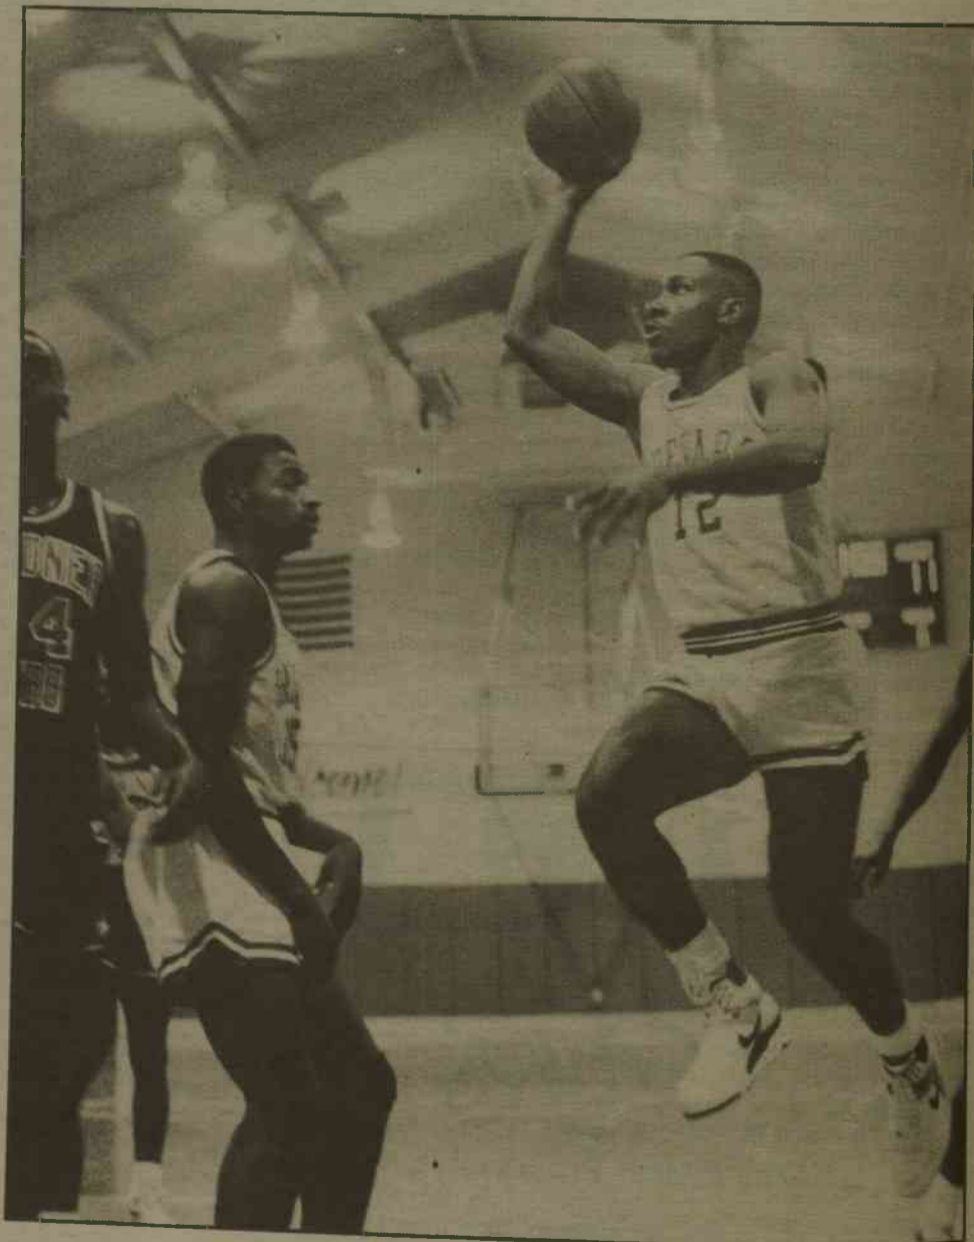

The Lady Tornadoes came to play against Louisburg on Nov. 20, but seemed unable to run plays on the offensive side of the court. Louisburg outmatched Brevard in size and team work. Louisburg had six out of its 11 players in double digits with one player with 23 points. Brevard was led by Tonja Barksdale with 19 points. The Lady Tornadoes played a tough game, but were outmatched by the "ladies" of Louisburg, 108-50.

The Lady Tornadoes played Truett-McConnell a good game on Nov. 19, working well together on offense as well as defense. The Tornadoes went into the locker-room at halftime down by 15 points with a score of 36-21.

Brevard came out determined to play ball in the second half. Truett-McConnell had three players in double digits with the highest scorer at 17 points.

The Lady Tornadoes were led by Katie Trexler with 15 points, Jennifer Burger with 12 points, and Jennifer Presnell with 10 points. In the end the Lady Tornadoes fell nine points short, 67-59.
