Jamie Cousin led the scoring for the Tornadoes with a career high 23 points followed by Darren Lawler's 14 points and Marcus Allen's 13 points.

The loss dropped Brevard's record to 12-9 overall, while Chowan, 20-4 overall, held on to at least a tie in the conference race with North Greenville and Anderson.

On January 24, Brevard's men's basketball team outscored the Mustangs of Spartanburg Methodist 21-8 to take a 77-69 win at Brevard in a conference match-up.

Down the stretch, Brevard hit 15 of 20 free throws led by Mike Cole's four for four and Darren Lawler's two for two to seal the team's first conference victory.

Mike Cole led all scorers with 19 points, followed by teammates Marcus Allen (15) and Lawler (13). The Mustangs' Vernon Redmon led his team's scoring with 15 points followed by Grady Williams' 14. Cole led the Tornadoes with six rebounds followed by Ronald Connor and Harvey Cozart, both with five apiece. Jamie Cousin dished out seven assists. "This was one of our best efforts of the year down the stretch," said Brevard Coach Doug Rogers.

Records fall at Clemson track meet

from BC News Bureau

Freshman high jumper Dan Watson tied the school record and freshman shot putter Beth Richter set a new record at the Feb. 3 Clemson Invitational meet.

Richter, the only woman competing for Brevard College at the Clemson meet, hurled the shot 33 feet, 4 inches for a new BC mark. Of the Chattanooga freshman, Coach Dave Rinker said, "Beth is making real progress. That was a two-foot improvement for her. She's great to work with."

Watson's 6'10" leap ties the school's high jump record. The Greenwood, S.C., freshman had qualified the week before to jump in the NJCAA nationals in March.

BC took a partial team to Clemson, Coach Rinker said, in order that the rest of the team rest up for the Virginia Tech races on the 11th.

Other results from Clemson: Geoff Moore won his section of the 800 meter race in 1:57.9, Rob Cowles won his section of the 3,000 with a 8:45.2, and Kevin Robinson was 7th in the men's shot with a put of 42 feet, 8 inches to become the 10th best thrower ever at BC.

Coach Rinker commented, "I was very pleased with Dan, Geoff and Rob. They are competing really well. Dan's steps were off and yet he's adjusting and hanging in there. That's the key in athletics and life: adjust and hang in there. It's not always easy and simple. Geoff and Rob ran smart, tough races."

Intramurals hit the water

by Jay Austin
Clarion Reporter

This semester has been a busy time for intramurals and outdoor activities.

The swim meet held on Jan. 25 was won by Jeff Pajak.

In the individual events Will Shriner won the 100 intermediate medley, Austin Spencer the 100m freestyle, Jeff Pajak the 50m breast stroke, Will Shriner the 50m butterfly, and Austin Spencer the 50m freestyle. The 200 freestyle relay was won by the team of Chet Reid, Scott Dvorak, Steve Kandrach, and Jeff Pajak.

There is a team swim meet being planned for after spring break.

A bowling tournament will start February 14 for a three-week season.

There will be a small fee for this tournament.

After spring break, there is an ultimate frisbee game being planned.

In January Jan Gillean took a group of students on a hike to the top of Looking Glass Rock.

Trips are being planned for more hikes on weekends.

There are tents and backpacks available for students to check out in MG 105.
