Farewell to ol' BC

Jan Gillean's work is great", Rick says. "We used to use forest parties as the place to form bonds. All the dorms interacted, relaxed, and blew off steam together. Rick and Rob believe that since forest parties were prohibited, the chances to mingle have lessened and the closeness between students has decreased. "I just hate to see things here change so much," Rick admits. "But people change, things happen. I've had the best of many worlds at Brevard, and I think I'll be the last to do that for a while."

He brightens, and changes the subject. "I am ready to leave here, but it's always gonna feel like home. A lot of good contacts are made at Brevard. People like Rob, and my girl, Jill & others. I'll never feel alone again. But it'll be hard to leave. They should offer me a job here!" He laughs.

Rob adds, "Friends here, they're forever."

But before Ricky and Rob graduate they wish to make a few requests.

From Ricky:

* "For Dean Langely: I want you to ask me (after graduation) about not having to go to summer school because of my U.S. Olympic Kayaking trials"

* For Doc Wood: I want to thank you for your help in English, but I want to see you after graduation for a Kayaking exam-800 questions, and 3 essays. And please bring a dime for paper.

* For the Greens: thank you for my fishing rod and my net."

From Robert:

* "To Mr. Coryell: Thanks for the two best classes I've ever had.

* "To the music faculty, especially Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, there's no way I could put into words how appreciative I am for the help and support throughout the good and bad times, especially the bad."

* And from both:

"Thanks to the students and faculty in helping us through. Enjoy Brevard as much as you possibly can."
