

Student Support

These Members Of The Campus Life Staff Can Make Life Easier For You

by Lorrin Wolf
Clarion Editor

Feeling lonely? Sad? Do you just need to talk to someone? Brevard College has a support staff trained to help students with every day problems and major crises.

Steve Martin, Dean of Campus Life, is also a trained counselor who talks to students needing counseling. He teaches the sole Peer Counseling class on campus, which is used to train Residence Hall Assistants (RHAs). Prior to his promotion, Martin worked as the Brevard College head counselor.

This year's head counselor is Kathy Meehan. Meehan teaches several psychology classes, including General Psychology. Pam Johnson is also a college counselor. Their offices are located in the M-G building.

Ernie Mills, the college chaplain, is trained to counsel students in need of help. Mills' office is downstairs in the library, but students are often able to catch him walking around campus talking to people.

The Residence Hall Directors (RHDs) live in each Residence Hall. They counsel students and assist the RHAs with problems that occur on each hall. The RHDs include Sybil Dodson, Jon Erikson, Judy Jacobson, David Kirby, Drew Nelson, Andrea Piner, Pablo Sanchez, and David Zuschin.

The RHAs live on each hall of the Residence Halls. They counsel students and plan social and educational activities each semester. The RHAs include Carrie Alter, Stephen Baldwin, Beth Goetz, Mark Gordon, Laura Hayes, Brooke Jewell, Andy Merl, Crystal Metcalf, Tina Milani, Dawn Nickerson, Derek Owen, Jon Placko, Joy Reyes, Chris Sailors, Jay Simpson, Brian Thomas, Paisley Tuffile, Don Willis, Lorrin Wolf and Tokashi Yamada.

All of these people are trained to help students with every day problems and major crises. They can be reached at any time.

Top row, left to right: Judy Jacobson; David Kirby; Sybil Dodson; Drew Nelson. Front row, left to right: Charlie Whitley, Asst. Dean of Campus Life; David Zuschin; Jon Erikson; Pablo Sanchez; Steve Martin, Dean of Campus Life.

RA Spotlight

Beth Goetz Shares Her Smile Across The BC Campus

by Kelly Wright
Campus Life Editor

Friendly, caring, responsible, and always able to throw a smile your way: these are just a few ways to describe Beth Goetz. She is a sophomore at Brevard College and a Residence Hall Assistant (RHA) on the first floor of Jones Community. "She is a well-rounded person who cares about everyone," said Megan Martling, a freshman and first floor resident of Jones Community.

Goetz is from St. Louis, Mo. She is the captain of the BC women's soccer team and enjoys it very much. "Beth is always there at the right time. She is very dependable," said Melissa McIntosh, a freshman soccer player.

When Goetz leaves Brevard College, she plans to receive a masters degree in psychology from a four-year university. "Beth is a very nice and smart person. She never says a bad word about anyone," said Laura Hayes, sophomore and fellow RHA.

Goetz is a one-of-a-kind person and Brevard College students are lucky to be able to share this environment with her.

Top row, left to right: Mark Gordon; Stephen Baldwin; Brian Thomas; Derek Owen; Jon Placko. Middle row, left to right: Charlie Whitley, Asst. Dean of Campus Life; Dawn Nickerson; Joy Reyes; Carrie Alter; Jaycie Weeks; Paisley Tuffile; Steve Martin, Dean of Campus Life. Front Row, left to right: Lorrin Wolf; Chris Sailors; Brooke Jewell; Laura Hayes; Tina Milani.