Alpha Chi gets comfortable on campus

by Michael Cohen
Special to The Clarion

Late this past fall, Brevard College was granted its petition for the installation of an Alpha Chi chapter on campus.

Alpha Chi, a nationwide organization open to students from all academic disciplines, honors juniors and seniors in the top 10 percent of their classes. The honor society boasts some 300 chapters with locations in 45 states and Puerto Rico.

Once a year, students nationwide are invited to join the organization with annual inductions totaling more than 11,000 new members. BC recently inducted eight students into its own chapter to serve as chartering members under the leadership of Professor Tom Bell.

Those inducted include Sarah Bruning-Jacks, Michael Cohen, Rebecca Cox, Ray Gill, Jayne Hall, Monte Sorrels, Dustin Stepp, and Sophia Yugay. These students were also recognized as chartering members during the Awards Day ceremony on Wednesday, April 20.

Despite its youth, Alpha Chi has already made its presence visible on campus with its co-sponsorship of the Gilbert-Chappel Distinguished Poet Series held this past April 26 at the Porter Center for Performing Arts.

Sarah Bruning-Jacks will serve as the organization's 2005-06 President.
