Woodruff

Matt Rutherford, the Arts & Life Editor of The Clarion, sat down with Woodruff on April 12. The following is their recorded conversation:

Preston Woodruff comes to us from Gainesville, Georgia. In 1968, Woodruff received his BA in English from Georgia State University. Afterwards he attended Emory University of Atlanta, Georgia and got his Master of Divinity. Preston is also the Pickens Professor of Religious Studies at Brevard College.

When did you announce your resignation?

I didn't exactly announce it. However, I did send a letter to Dean Hardt on April 6th.

How long have you worked at Brevard College?

I began working at Brevard College in August of 1973, so thirty-three years.

You said the average salary for a full professor at Brevard College is $51,300, and you make somewhere in the ballpark of a little above $43,000 a year. Do you have an idea as to why your raise proposal was denied?

Dean Hardt and President Van Horn said they simply cannot do this; other than that, I really don't have a clue.

What do you think the impact of your leaving will be on the humanities division and the religious department?

Everybody is replaceable. I hope the next member of the religious department is interested in biblical studies. I believe this department and this division is in very good hands.

Football has been the focus of heated debate on campus for the past year. Do you think you raise denial is connected to this "operation football"?

I have no reason to believe this. I think athletics are a significant part of college life.

Have you received tenure? How long did it take before you received this honor?

Yes, I have received tenure. I received it sometime in the 1980s.

What are your plans for the future?

I haven't really decided. But, maybe its time to get out of the word business, whatever I choose to do, I don't plan on rushing myself.

Will you remain in the town of Brevard?

I hope so. I love it here. I have a lot of friends in this town. I'm also very appreciative of all the student voices, extending their care. It means a lot to me.

Change is always going on in the world. This will be a significant transition for you. Do you feel this is a negative or positive occurrence in your life?

By the time you're my age, you learn to take what comes your way and keep going. I'm interested in my future and where it's going. It's really exciting. I also think the college will be fine in the future. It has always been good at maintaining its identity.

Do you have any parting advice?

I don't believe in last words.
