

BC Football looks for first win against Chowan

by Joseph Chilton
Managing Editor

Last season, Brevard got their first win of the year against Chowan University. The Tornados will be hoping that history repeats itself when the Hawks come to town this Saturday.

Coming off of a bye week last weekend, the Tornados return to the gridiron this weekend during Family Weekend festivities on Saturday.

BC has stumbled its way to an 0-3 start thus far, but Chowan will be a perfect opponent to try and right the ship against.

Last weekend Chowan snapped an eighteen game losing streak that dated back to the 2005 season by squeaking by Division III Methodist 31-30 last weekend. It was on Chowan's field last October that BC got its first football victory in over fifty years, making a goal-line stand in the final minute to preserve a 10-5 victory over the Hawks.

If Brevard achieves a similar outcome this season, it will most likely come on the shoulders of junior running back John Taylor. The Elon transfer has racked up 299 yards and six touchdowns on 63 carries this season, and the team's offense appears much more efficient with Taylor providing them a workhorse in the backfield.

Chowan will enter the game with a 1-3 record on the season. Against the other two South Atlantic Conference opponents that they have played the Hawks are 0-2, having been outscored by Newberry and Catawba by a combined score of 122-7.

Kickoff for this week's game will be at 2 p.m. at Brevard Memorial Stadium on the campus of Brevard High School.

Brevard Volleyball wins pair in tri-match

by Amethyst Green
Sports Editor

Brevard played two games this past Saturday at home. The first game was against Southern Wesleyan, and BC improved on the season to 10-2 and Saturday 2-0. The game scores were 30-21, 30-20, and 32-30.

The leaders of the game were: Brooke Seaman, a sophomore with 17 kills, Marquessa Chappell, a senior with 15 kills, Jami Perry, a junior with 34 set assists, and Brittany Holliday a senior with 13 digs.

The next game was against West Virginia Tech and the scores were 30-21, 30-12, and 30-28. Brooke Seaman, a sophomore had 12 kills, 5 solo blocks, and 1 block assist. While Marquessa Chappell sat out most of the game, Kirsten Carlson and Christin Johnston combined had 11 kills and 2 blocks to make up for it. Jessica Whitmire, a senior had 4 kills of her own, and Jami Perry, a junior had 3 kills to go along with her 33 set assists.

The next home game will be Saturday at 2 p.m. against Lincoln Memorial. Please come out and support our Brevard College Women's Volleyball. Also, congratulations to their outstanding play this past weekend!

IT only
TAKES A SPARK.

Please

ONLY YOU CAN PREVENT WILDFIRES.

smokeybear.com

Athlete of the week: Brooke Seaman

Brooke was named "Athlete of the week" for recording 29 kills in a pair of wins last weekend over Southern Wesleyan and West Virginia Tech.

Sport: Volleyball
Class: Sophomore
Hometown: Spring Hill, Florida
Major: Art