HOROSCOPE

Aries- Looking for a good time? Start searching in different places, rather than the same old dead-end place with the same lame people. You’ve got a lot of potential to spread your wings. If you’re lucky, you might score something that’s mind blowing.

Lucky Color- Augustus Bone

Taurus- Stop giving your friends and family a hard time because your too stubborn to realize that your personality needs some tweaking. Listen to all the advice you receive and carefully imagine yourself as a better person. Don’t be ordinary, like all the rest of the bad apples in the tree.

Lucky Color- Chocolate Diaper

Gemini- If your boyfriend or girlfriend is being too greedy or demanding of your attention, then stick up for yourself and tell them you didn’t sign up for a miserable job. Be bold, not limp.

Lucky Color- Toxic Moon

Cancer- Quit letting all the pent up anger control your life. Don’t let the everyday normalcy of stress blow your willow into the water. Take the time to control your fury by confronting various problems. Get in the face of anger and whisper a lullaby you fuzzy peach!

Lucky Color- Imperial Cheddar

Leo- Don’t be shy anymore. Life is too short to be acting goofy because you think everyone is thinking about your wrinkled pants or furry arms. Let your voice be louder than Princes’ at the Apollo, and let your actions be natural. Remember, muscle tension can embarrass you if you’re not calm, so don’t try anything cool with your body if your nervous, like greeting someone.

Lucky Color- Burnt Ramen

Virgo- You’re going to have to stop lying to everybody who loves you. Just admit to them that you’re vulnerable and scared about what’s eating you alive inside. Take that mask off and rear your ugly head.

Lucky Color- Stoic Grey

Libra- Obsessing over a life that’s totally unrealistic is a waste of time. Be yourself and realize that you have to deal with the cards you’ve got so far. Don’t let the pressures of society drive you mad, instead be humbled by your existence.

Lucky Color- Lavatory White

Scorpio- Your interpreting and solving skills are off the charts right now. Go out and help people with their problems and see if you can make them happy. Don’t worry about your problems though, they wont ever die away...away.

Lucky Color- Salty Brain

Sagittarius- Blah, blah, blah. Quit being so freakin’ sensitive all the time and toughen up so you can handle the real troubles in life. Things that you would never imagine will happen to you and you won’t be able to breathe if you don’t harden up.

Lucky Color- Digital Red

Capricorn- Outside forces will try to distract you from your main goals in life. Shrug them off and come back to your great sense of pride. You can always destroy yourself after the work is over.

Lucky Color- Maggot Beige

Aquarius- If you think your going crazy then quickly ask for other people’s opinion so you went end up tearing your hair out. Also, if you know someone that is actually crazy and they tell you that your just fine, then I would suggest starting a novelty act of some sort.

Lucky Color- Blue Jean

Pisces- Trust your new friends because their only trying to prove themselves as loyal minions.

Lucky Color- Yuppie Tan
