

Three men charged in on-campus fight

From Staff Reports

Three men have been charged in relation to an altercation that occurred on the Brevard College campus early Sunday morning.

Charles David Hudson, Isaac Crockett Jones, and Jonathan Paul Jones are facing varying charges stemming from the incident. None of the men are Brevard College students.

According to court records, the three men assaulted three Brevard College students and one non-student in the parking lot between Green Hall and Dunham Auditorium.

Joseph Turner, Jeron Sykes, and Lamont Carpenter were the students who were assaulted. The men also assaulted Alexandria Wynn, 22, of records, Jones drove his BMW 318i into Sykes and Turner, injuring Sykes. Jones has been being charged with assault and possession of marijuana. He has been released on a $500 bond.

All three men are scheduled to appear in court on April 24.

The altercation apparently began at the Mary C. Jenkins Community Center, and was continued on the Brevard College campus, according to a press release issued by the College.

The release also stated that all three men have been issued no trespass letters and are banned from campus. Students seeing any of the three men are urged to report them to Campus Security immediately.

The mugshots of the three men arrested on the Brevard College campus last weekend. All three are banned from campus and students are urged to report to campus security any sightings of the men.

Brevard.

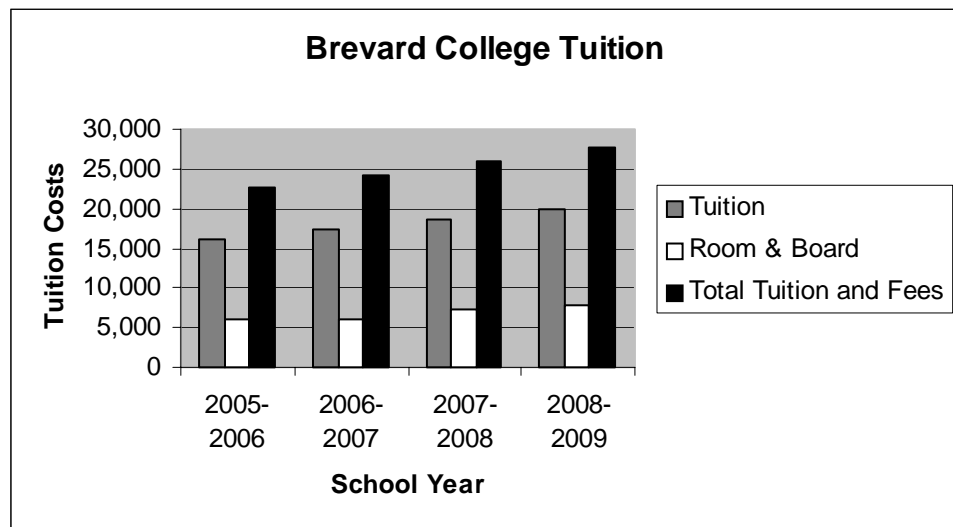

Jones, 18, of Sapphire, is facing the most serious charges. He is being charged with two counts of felony assault with a deadly weapon with intent to inflict serious injury. According to court released on a $5,000 bond.

Hudson, 27, of Lake Toxaway, is being charged with one felony count of having a handgun on educational property. He is currently being held under $5,000 secured bond.

Crockett, 22, of Brevard, is

Board of Trustees Approves 6.9% hike in fees

At their meeting two weeks ago, the Brevard College Board of Trustees approved raising tuition and room and board by approximately 6.9%. Tuition for the 2008-09 school year will be $19,900 for full-time students, and room and board will be $7,697. To see how this year's raise in fees fits with the increases in previous years, see the above table.

What's Inside?

- News..... 2
- Spring Break2
- Opinion.....3
- Sports.....4
- Good Grief.....5
- Arts and Life.....6
- Horoscopes.....7
- Classifieds8
- Cartoon.....8