Sports Information Director Kevin Davis is pleased to announce the launch of Brevard College's new athletic website, BCTornados.Athleticsite.com. The website is hosted by ATHLETICSITE.COM, whose CEO, Scott McCain, designed the site.

The new website revolutionizes the way that Brevard College delivers athletic news to the Tornado faithful.

BCTornados.Athleticsite.com features a user-friendly layout, separate pages for all Tornado teams, profiles of every Tornado athlete and coach, and interactive fan polls. In the coming months, the website will also host pages for the Tornado Club and Intramural Department, live statistics of home sporting events, and links to listen to radio broadcasts of Tornado events.

"I could not be happier that BCTornados.Athleticsite.com is up and running," said Davis, who has worked in conjunction with McCain to build the site over the summer. "This website looks fantastic, and it will make it much easier for Tornado fans to follow everything that is happening in the Brevard athletic department."

"Without a doubt, BCTornados.Athleticsite.com enhances the online experience of all Tornado fans," said Rob Walden, Davis' assistant and the voice of Tornado radio broadcasts.

"I am especially excited because the new site will allow fans who can't come to the game to still follow the action through live statistics and links to online broadcasts."

"As a former student-athlete, I know how much it means to have a website of this quality," said Seth Montgomery, the school's SID Intern. "Student-athletes love to be able to go online to see pictures, stories, and statistics from their games, and the new BCTornados.Athleticsite.com will make it easy for all Tornados to get this information."

Brevard is the fifth South Atlantic Conference School to join the ATHLETICSITE.COM family.
