Does Valentine's Day make you depressed?	No, I have my sweetness	No, just another lonely day.	Yeah, because I don't always have a valentine, and I have to see other girls with balloons and candy,	If I don't have a Valentine, then yes.
What is the cheesiest Valentine's gift you have ever received or given?	I sent a girl a bunch of flowers and all she said was, "Thank you." Skank!	I got a big bear in 5th grade with a backpack on it with a bracelet in it.	Roses. I hate roses.	All my gifts have been good.
Best candy to get on Valentine's Day?	Wonka Bar!	Godiva	Chocolate covered cherries	Sweethearts

Café Ole!

Beginning Feb. 18 students of Brevard College will have an opportunity to practice speaking Spanish every Wednesday in the Institute Room of Myers Dining Hall.

This event, which will run from noon to 1 p.m., will be organized by Spanish Professor Judy Hoxit. Native Spanish speakers are encouraged to come and help students simply by interacting with them and talking to them in Spanish.

So...want to chat en español (and español ONLY)? Just bring your lunch with you and simply drop in!
