

BC students attend SLS Conference

by Dimitri McCloghry
Staff Writer

From November 6th to 7th, students involved in the T-Move organization on Brevard campus took part in the annual Southeastern Student Leadership Conference, with Western Carolina University being this year's host site. On the initial night of gathering, students arrived at the activities center at Western Carolina for a service project involving the making of blankets for different organizations that would then ship them to impoverished people across the U.S.

On the following morning, the actual Conference took place, with seminars by professors and student presenters taking place throughout the campus. Topics ranged from acceptance to others in our environment, to leadership and interpersonal skills in both the academic and social scene. Food and drinks were provided, and students were given a chance to interact with other students from participating colleges.

T-Move meets every Sunday night at 7:30 in the AEC. Visitors are welcome.

Free pizza at disc golf tournament

by Zach Christy
Staff Writer

Disc golf Association is hosting an open campus tournament Friday November 20th at 4pm. This is an open call to any and everyone who might be interested in playing the sport but has never had the wiener and pubes to do so.

There is no experience necessary, and no entry fee. It will be a doubles-tournament (pick your own partner.) captain's choice (this means both players throw, then decide which disc they would like to play.)

Prize will go to the winners, get excited, and a free pizza party will be awaiting the participants.

If you want to participate, need help finding a partner, wish to borrow discs, have never played before, and/or have any questions email Zack Christy (christjz@brevard.edu). Please contact us as soon as possible so we know how much pizza to get! See you there.
