

Job Fair to take place Wednesday in RDR

Emily Clark
Business Manager

As the snow gradually melts around campus the thoughts of summer come to mind and the possible jobs available during the summer.

Next week, on Wednesday, Feb. 10 from 11 am - 2 pm., a Summer Job & Camp Fair will be held on the Academic Quad, rain location is Myers Reserve Dining.

Every February, the college holds a summer job and camp fair for interested students looking for a summer job. All majors are invited to come participate.

"It is an opportunity to establish network connections", observes Tommasanne Davis, Director for the Office of Career and Exploration Development Office.

It is a chance to practice your networking skills by meeting new people which could lead to other potential job opportunities.

The following participants are coming to the Summer Job & Camp Fair: SUWS of the Carolinas, Camp Carolina, Camp Tekoa, Gwynn Valley, Camp Weequahic, SOAR Inc., Girl Scouts Carolinas, Headwaters Outfitters Inc., YMCA Cheerio Adventures/ Camp Cheerio, Girl Scouts of SC, Kanuga Conferences Inc., Falling Creek Camp, Ridgecrest Summer Camps, Coastal Kayak Touring Co., Camp Arrowhead for Boys, Eagle's Nest Camp, Camp Rockmont for Boys, Rockbrook Camp, Talisman Programs, Camp Illahee, Camp Ton-A-Wandah, NC Outward Bound, Nantahala Outdoor Center.

Those not attending but will provide information include: The Mountain Retreat & Learning Centers, Blue Star Camps, NOLS, and the Cradle of Forestry.

A resume is not required at the job fair but is advisable to prepare one to give to a potential employer at the job fair.

If you would like assistance with your resume or someone to review it, stop by the Career and Exploration Development Office in the AEC.

Another job fair is held every semester at UNC-Asheville. There will be one on Tuesday, Feb. 16., 11am - 2pm. Contact davist@brevard.edu by Friday, Feb. 12 to reserve your spot in the carpool van.
