AMERICAN HERO

Mr. Kenneth Kratz, District Attorney of Calumet County, Wisconsin was caught sending "sext" messages to the ex-girlfriend of a man he was prosecuting. As Kratz himself said, "Are you the kind of girl that likes secret contact with an older married elected DA ... the riskier the better?" Guess she's not.

For abusing his power, trying to coerce the ex-girlfriend of the client he's prosecuting into a love affair, and taking an indefinite medical leave of absence due to uncontrollable horniness, Mr. Kratz is this week's American Hero.

PWNED of the Week

Senior Grant Cromie gets the privilege of being the Clarion's first PWNED of the Week. Cromie ate it while attempting a creek gap at Black Mountain and luckily his buddy Daniel Caudill was there to catch the carnage on film. When asked about the incident Cromie simply stated, "I came out of it alright, but I can't say the same for my bike."
