

Who will wear the crown?

The candidates are chosen, the tension is high, the guys have never looked so good! The first ever Mr. BC pageant is underway, this Friday during Blue and White Night. There is a wide range of participants each with his own charm, good looks and of course talents. So who will win? Will it be the suave Jarred Fisher, the playful Willie Jones, or will one of the freshmen win the crown? The Mr. BC pageant will be held tonight during Blue and White Night, as a kick off to Homecoming Weekend in Dunham. So come out, watch the pageant, show your spirit and let the games begin!
