

CMSI recruits for MLK challenge

The Center for Multicultural & Service Initiatives (CMSI) is looking for students to lead the Student Planning Committee for the Martin Luther King Jr. Challenge (community service event held: Monday, Jan. 16, 2012)

This is a great way to get involved on campus, work with other BC students, and develop student leadership skills!

- Requirements:
- Have a passion for service and working with others
 - Able to commit to weekly meetings in November & some days in December

ATTEND THE INTEREST SESSION in the CMSI (located in the AEC in Coltrane) on Tuesday, Nov. 1, 2011 6:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Old school vs. new school

Student faculty basketball game

By Joshua Smith
Staff Writer

Headbands, short shorts, long socks, oh my! The Brevard College faculty was able to pull off the basketball victory over the Brevard College students.

For the second year in a row the faculty triumphed over the students. However, this 70-62 victory was not an easy feat. The game immediately started off full of turnovers for both teams. Both teams played with high speed and high intensity.

Both teams fought hard throughout the game. Since a lot of students participated, teams of 5 played for 5 minute intervals. Even with the constant rotation, the players had great attitudes and supported each other. Andrew Schauss, a Brevard Basketball player and the Brevard Students coach said, "The game was a lot closer than I expected. The faculty had a lot of talent, but our students played hard and made it very close. The girls on our team played very hard and made it tough for the faculty to get baskets."

The only controversial part of Wednesday night's game, was officiating from the referees. Coach schauss felt that referees Holli and Anna gave the game to the faculty. Coach Michael Gist of the Brevard students was furious how player Donald Hudson of the faculty ran over the female players throughout the game. Coach Schauss also added, "A few more calls go our way, and we win the game."

Most importantly this game was to have fun. "I liked the game. It was fun. I liked how the commentator got the fans involved." Student fan George Sinch said.

The fun was sparked with the game commentator Jermichael Tanner. He was the game's hype man. Jermichael entertained the fans with jokes and screams as the game rolled on. Also music was played throughout the game for fans to enjoy. Even during halftime Brevard football players Joshua Smith and Chris Jones had a dance competition at half court.

Dax and Kevin- Homecoming by Karam Boeshaar

FRENCH BROAD CAFE

Mon-Fri 7:30am-3pm, Sat-Sun 8:30am-2pm

BREAKFAST & LUNCH ALL DAY!

29 W French Broad St
Suite 106

FREE
WIFI

Right across the street!

