

in this ISSUE

4 Celebration Week

Drag Kings. Drag Queens. Femenist Authors. Karaoke. The GLBT-SA's Celebration Week had it all!

7 U.N.I.T.E.D. Is Born

A new pheonix has arisen from the ashes of QPAC. A new arm of the GLBT-SA investigates intersections of race and sexuality.

13 Tranny Road-show

The Tranny Road Show promotes tolerance through art.

10 Dealing With Desire

What is dictating who you are attracted to? Biology? The Media? Trevor Hoppe investigates.

6 Alpha Iota Omega

A federal district court recently ruled in favor of a Christian fraternity that wishes to exclude students from membership based on religious practices and sexual orientation. What does it mean to us?

12 Joan Roughgarden

Transgendered biologist Joan Roughgarden challenges Charles Darwin's theory of sexual selection in her new book, Evolution's Rainbow.

11 Allied Faces

In the same spirit as "LGBTIQ Faces," LAMBDA gets the scoop on ally and new GLBT-SA secretary, Jessica Stewart.

In every issue

8 LGBTIQ Faces

New GLBT-SA Co-Chairs

Front Cover:

(Upper Left) UNC student Jeffery Cash seduces the stage at the GLBT-SA's drag show. (Upper Right) Femenist author Inga Musico speaks on female sexuality. (Bottom) University student sign petitions to include sexual orientation, gender identity and gender expression under hate crime legislation. All photos by Brice McGowen and Clarisse Rodriguez.