JANUARY, 1910.

No. 5.

TODAY begins a New Year. The date on the calendar does not matter. The earth starts every morning on its year-long journey round the sun as truly as on the first day of January, and each new dawn is therefore a fresh opportunity to begin right. It is for us to determine what the year shall be. The demand upon us is not that we succeed, but only that we try; and to try manfully every day and all day long, is inevitably to attain in the end a supreme success."
