

REV. J. J.

ARCHIVES
THE CECIL W. HUBBARD LIBRARY
LOUISBURG COLLEGE
LOUISBURG, N.C. 27519

Louisburg Echoes.

Vol. III.

JUNE, 1911.

No. 10.

HAIL LOUISBURG COLLEGE.

Mattie E. Martin.

Hail! Hail! L. C., our gracious Alma Mater
Bounteous giver of four years of joy;
To thee be praise and highest adoration,
To tell thy story will our tongues employ.

Hail Louisburg College
Light thou doth stand,
Illuminator
Of our fair South land.

For ties of friendship that can ne'er be broken.
For lessons learned of deepest things of life;
We honor thee, our lovely Alma Mater,
With truest wisdom may thy path be rife.

Then to our College
Pledge we our love,
Guide her in service
Father above.

First thou shalt be and dearest in our memory
The class of 'leven, thy eight daughters true;
Give us thy blessing ere we leave thy portals,
Thy inspiration for life's battles new.

Farewell old College
And all thy fun,
Sad be the knowledge
Life with thee is done.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF LOUISBURG COLLEGE
LOUISBURG, NORTH CAROLINA