

The

WHISPERING OAK

The newspaper of the students

Volume 1

November 10 1939

Number 1

COTTON NAMES PUBLICATION

$10.00 PRIZE WON
IN HEATED CONTEST

The Baptist Student Union held its annual convention at Campbell College, Buies' Creek, N.C., October 27 through the 29. The following students attended: Lester Stallings, president of the Louisburg College Baptist Student Union; Thelma Clark, president of the Louisburg College Baptist Young people's Union; Louise Averett; Aileen Rogers; Lizzie Morgan; Fannie Mac Vaughan; Paul Freeman; Bentley Jones; Howell Perry; Leonard Perry; Miss Elizabeth Cassiter, director of local Baptist students.

A number of interesting speakers were: Rev. Paul Caudill of Augusta, Ga.; Dr. Ralph Herring of Winston-Salem; Rev. W. C. Somerville, Secretary of the Negro Baptist State Convention; Dr. Walter H. Judd, a Medical Missionary from China; Dr. O. T. Binkly of Wake Forest College; Rev. Perry Crouch of Raleigh.

The students from Louisburg College found the visit to be very pleasant. They, finding the convention a source of inspiration, hope to be able to transmit part of Today, the staff of The Whispering Oak takes great pleasure in submitting to the students and the faculty of this college, the first edition of another school paper.

Much excitement, interest, and competition has recently been displayed on the campus by the student body regarding the birth of this paper. Certainly nothing short of a mid-term exam could cause as much enthusiasm and hustling as did the election of staff officers on Saturday, October 28, and the selection of the name of this paper, Friday, November 3.

The staff officers were elected by popular vote Saturday before last, after the nomination of candidates by both the Publications Committee and the students at large. This committee, comprised of Lester Stallings, Juanita Hurley, Mae Davis, Margaret Simmons, and advised