

S O C I A L E V E N T S O F T H E
W E E K

* - - - - *

On Wednesday November 8, the boys' and girls' Monogram Clubs gave a picnic on the river. Light refreshments were served. Coach Cameron and Miss Rogers were chaperones.

* * * * *

Y. M. C. A. Weiner Roast

On Tuesday night, Nov. 7, the Young Men's Christian Association entertained their guests at a weiner roast. The couples liked to the river where the feast awaited them. After the weiner roast, the master of ceremonies, Ed Comer, called on the guests to contribute stunts to the program. The stunts were enjoyed by all. The chaperones were Miss Peyatt and Mr. Taff.

(Continued from page two)

dares say there are sixty-five names, initials or drawings on the posts in the auditorium only and in proportion how many in other places? Then what about the pillars in front of the administration Building? To count the names on them would be folly.

This disrespect for property has gone so far that students habitually scribble on the notices on the bulletin board itself suffers. Next time you get a chance, look at the bulletin board and the posts in the auditorium. Is your name up there? If it is, you should have enough pride to take it off and keep it off.

Not only do the more public places of the buildings suffer, but also the dormitory walls, the shower rooms, and any place where anyone might observe the

The Wandering
Cameraman snaps
at life

WRIGHT
DORM. KAT

GATE-CRASHER