Challenge '78

The theme of the Black Student Movement this year is not to regard an outstanding debt over which we had little control as an excuse for sub-par administration. Rather, we'd like to think of it as the impetus for one of the best years in the BSM's history. A choice for us to perform as we ideally should and to unite for a common cause.

Part of that common cause is a goal of at least 80 BSM members and at least 500 dues-paying members.

Among those who have already made this goal closer to reality are the following dues-paying BSM members:

Diane Waters	Spencer Brown	Pam Dockery
Beatrice Jones	Myra Blue	Doug Minor
Pam Counts	Pauline McNeil	Renrick Pope
Sheila Russel	Gina Clark	Crystal Archable
Heidi Kilimanjaro	Cheryl Darden	Allen Johnson III
Roscoe McClain	Barry Landis	Brenda Push
Toi Carter	Colette Albritton	Carl Johnson
Cathy Alston	David Squires	Byron Horton III
Pamela Joyner	Varonda Hopkins	Harold Warren

We'll list other dues-paying members in future issues of BLACK INK. If you believe in what we're all about, why not join the list.
