THE GREATEST BOON

J. Hill

For true friendship, it is not enough to have emptied a brotherly glass to each other. To have sat on the same form at school, to have met frequently at the same cafe, to have conversed courteously in the street, to have sung the same songs at the same club, to have worn the same colors as politicians, to have extolled one another in the press. Friendship, indeed, is one of the greatest boons God can bestow on man. It is a union of our finest feelings; a disinterested binding of hearts, and a sympathy between two souls. It is an indefinable trust we repose in one another, a constant communication between two minds, and an unremitting anxiety for each other's souls.

Without U

Victor E. Blue

i am not by myself,
yet i am alone
alone, i am without u.

happiness is but a fleeting moment
flickering like a flame in the wind —
a sudden gust and it is
gone;

happiness is a briskly
flowing river
winding through
mountain and valley—
only to end in some
ocean-

an ocean of sadness,
perpetually deep
deep with thoughts of
your smile
riding the tide of my mind

but your smile and my happiness are just a
memory
a memory of what once
was 4 it is no more

just our destiny

u were my light, my fire,
and my hope
now hope is gone and i
am alone
alone, i am without u.
