

Gary Nash

Michael Cureton

Fall fad

by BIRSHARI C. GREENE
Staff Writer

Have you ever woke up one morning and thought, "What am I going to wear today? Should I go for the Carolina sweat-shirt and hi-top Reeboks, or the paisley print sweater and acid-wash jeans?" I often do. I wonder if this will be the day for me to make a fashion statement or not. But, would I really be making a fashion or fad statement? What is the difference between fads and fashions?

"Fads are sometimes tacky but are still in style. While fad lasts for only a short period of time, fashion can be interchanged, practical and stylish." Lisa Hughes, Freshman, Political Science

"Fad, to me, is when a certain article of clothing comes out, and everybody wants it because they're trying to keep with the Joneses. Fashion is something that always looks good, and looks good on me." Stephanie Sidberry, Sophomore, Pharmacy

Whether you wear those "Bucks" because everybody has a pair or because you really like them is up to you as an individual. Most experts do agree that what a person wears can reveal a great deal about his personality, mood, likes and dislikes and, of course, style.

"Fashions are classics with variations... slim-cut skirts or mini's, while fads are acid wash jeans and cords (cor-

Left to right: Tina Brown, Michael Cureton