The Tenth Annual Martin Luther King Jr. Birthday Celebration

"...I say to you today, my friends, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream...I have a dream that one day...sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood... I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character... and when this happens, and when we allow freedom to ring... we will be able to speed up that day when all God's children, black... and white..., Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing... 'Free at last. Free at last. Thank God Almighty, we are free at last.'"
