

RAINING REVOLUTION

Students are taking matters into their own hands. During this march on South Building members of the B.A.C. gave Chancellor Paul Hardin an ultimatum for establishing a free-standing BCC.

INSIDE BLACK INK

Wednesday, September 16, 1992

Students Unite For The Cause. Page 5

Heel Linebacker Tommy Thigpen. Page 9

Karen Greene: Dont Sweat The Technique. Page 12

A CLOSER LOOK AT THE NATION OF ISLAM	3
WHAT'S THE STATE OF RACE RELATIONS? THE CAA HOMECOMING QUEEN POLICY	4
RING THE ALARM: THOMAS ON ACTIVISM Q & A WITH PROFESSOR JON MICHAEL SPENCER	5
SOUTH BUILDING SCENARIO AN INTERVIEW WITH MARGO CRAWFORD	6
START OF A REVOLUTION	7
FOR THE RECORD: FEATURING BOBBY BROWN	8
SPORTS PROFILE ON: TOMMY THIGPEN	9
LETTERS TO THE EDITOR	10
ENDSIGHTS ON AFROCENTRICITY	11
DONT SWEAT THE TECHNIQUE: KAREN GREENE CAMPUS VOICE: DUKE UNIVERSITY'S STACY WALKER BLACK INK EDITORIAL: HAVING AN OPEN MIND	12

BLACK INK STAFF

Editors • Chandra McLean & Corey Brown

Editorial Advisor • Myron B. Pitts

Associate Editors • Keisha Brown, Jacqueline Charles, A.C. Turner Business Manager • Annice Hood Music Editor • T. J. Stancil

Staff: Renee Alexander, Tiffany Ashhurst, Shani Barrax, Chronda Blocker, Amber Fewell, Mark Fleming, Stormie Forte, Tameka Green, Karen Greene, Scott Heath, Michael B. Hicks, Scott Johnson, John McCann, Charles McNair, Tare Reid, Sharilyn Seale, Michelle Thomas, Stefan Tyson, Lisa Underwood, Tia Webster Contributors • Jarvis Harris, Trish Merchant, Tuere Randall