

Promoting cultural diversity, Banghra Elite teaches BSM members to dance during a BSM meeting.

BSM President Tamara Bailey explains the reality of Affirmative Action.

Affirmative Action crosses gender and racial lines. One supporter states that "White people have Affirmative Action every day, it's called business as usual."

BSM members join hands and shout "Harambee," a Swahilli word meaning "pull together."

Harmonyx performs the Black National Anthem, "Lift Every Voice and Sing," in the Pit.