

Sublime Intervention

*Into the light! Dark present, turned past.
Like dawn from the night, Dark forces won't last.
Death held me close... Cold whispers in my ear.
Though my body played host, My soul did not fear.
The once distant light, Love's power made known.
The treasure in sight, was mine to own.
Soon we will find, that time is long gone.
But then we will lie, on eternities lawn.
And I'll stare in your eyes, And we'll kiss from then on.
Under ethereal skies, we'll kiss from then on.*

Immortality

*When i'm with you time stands still,
My heart beats to your drum,
And my reason is subdued by my will,
Of all i desire, you are the sum.
You got me groovin' to your whole vibe,
Seeing the world through rose tinted shades,
Watching life's hidden beauty slowly come alive,
Understanding that love can transcend the grave,
My soul is mesmoirized by your beauty,
Drawn to it like a moth to a fire,
I sense to love you is my soul's true duty,
Cause love i just wanna take you higher,
To the highest heights of bliss,
Giving you immortality sealed with a kiss!*

Missing You

Unspoken words drop like
A gentle rain
As tears brutally
Wash you away
Wondering if only i had said
What you meant to me
Searching in my heart
For a way to love again
Knowing that today is gone
And tomorrow's anguish has just begun
Missing you
Holding You loving you... will i ever feel the touch
Of your hand over mine?
Timid at first, gaining strength
Like a bird learning to fly
My heart rose
To greet yours willingly
Now I'm all alone...
Missing you...
Missing me...
