

Top: Krisit Booker hands list of demands to Provost Shelton outside of South Building. Bottom: Student protesters chant as they march to South Building to hand Chancellor Moeser their list of 14 demands.

Hate Fighters Our Demands

1. A safe campus environment for students of color at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.
2. A public statement from the Chancellor in response to the Genocide Awareness Project (GAP) and to the advertisement by David Horowitz.
3. The University take a more active role in the accurate depiction of the history of underrepresented groups
4. The re-creation of an active Advisory Board to restore a system of accountability between the DTH and its readership.
5. Establish a mandatory sensitivity/diversity training for University administrators, faculty and staff.
6. Hold Chapel Hill and Campus Police publicly accountable in areas such as racial profiling and sensitivity training.
7. Secure a living wage for housekeepers and groundskeepers.
8. Provide better working conditions/environment for housekeepers and groundskeepers
9. Hire more tenured faculty, staff and administrators of color.
10. Public recognition of contributions of African-Americans to the University
11. Ensure better recruitment and retention of people of color.
12. Supply more monetary support for the MSRC.
13. Provide better academic support and respect for black athletes.
14. Restore the headstones in the Slave Cemetery.

