

Gardner - Webb Pilot Staff

Jerry Keeter	Editor
Betty Jo Williams	News Editor
Joyce Stevenson	Business Manager
John Roberts	Faculty Advisor

EDITORIAL STAFF

Shelia Mayberry	Associate Editor
Eddie Hudson	Associate Editor
Donnie Philbeck	Associate News Editor
	Library Editor
Jimmy Sides	Religious Editor
Lee Jefferis	Religious Editor
Gilbert Flemming	Sports Editor
Harold Long	Sports Editor
Boyce Freeman	Literary Editor
David Littlejohn	Literary Editor
Bill Sitton	Photographer

BUSINESS STAFF

Ed Scruggs	Asst. Business Manager
Paul Steadman	Circulation Manager
Henry Beveridge	Asst. Circulation Manager

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"NOW I KNOW WHAT THEY MEAN BY HIGHER EDUCATION."

THE EDITOR'S DESK

A couple hours of your valuable time are needed each Saturday night.

What are they needed for? Simply this! Our Bulldogs need your support each time they go into battle. They are doing a splendid job as you can see by the defeats they have handed out to Mars Hill, Western Carolina "B", and Hargrave. Let's all come out next week and show the boys that we are really backing them. They're doing their share so let's do our share.

Let's give credit where credit is due. Our band and majorettes are really doing a splendid job and we are proud of them. Thanks to each of you for your endless hours of work each day which gives us such splendid performances.

Have you noticed our dog families around campus? You would just about think they had rabbit blood in them the way they multiply. I really think somebody is trying to cross a hound and "Sooner-Be" to see if either one is carrying a Bulldog trait. Let's hope so for if they are carrying the necessary traits, we can produce our own Bulldogs.

THIS IS LOVE

This is love—The power to enjoy things, to endure things, to work for things, and to sacrifice things together; to dream the same dreams, to hope the same hopes, and to find the same answer to the great cross-word puzzle called life.

Regulations
For Awards

Each year there are two medals awarded at Commencement by the PILOT, one for the best original poem published during the year in the PILOT subject to the conditions set forth in the following rules; and one for the best piece of prose published during the year in the PILOT, subject to the conditions set forth in the following rules.

General Rules

1. The literary material considered must have been published in Pilot while the student submitting it was enrolled at Gardner-Webb College.
2. The judges for any particular year will be chosen by the Pilot staff at the beginning of that year. It is suggested that the same judges not be chosen for two consecutive years.
3. The decisions of the majority of the judges will be final.
4. The judge will decide on the method of presentation of the medals at commencement.
5. The "Tributum Pilotum" awards book will contain the picture of the yearly winners, along with a copy of their prize winning work. This book will be placed in the library.

Our winners last year were Donnis Philbeck and Harold Long.

Life is not so short that there is always time for courtesy. —Emerson.

You are going to get one shot at this life, so make every day count. —Martin Vanber.

Campus
Outpost

A relatively unknown part of the campus of Gardner-Webb College is located just behind the President's Home on Green Street. This is an apartment-development which consists for the most part of ministerial students and their families.

On the same street live such notables as Dr. and Mrs. Bob Elliott, Miss Davis, Miss Copeland, Prof. and Mrs. Robert Carr, and Coach and Mrs. James Garrison.

New neighbors this year are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Southerland, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Colet! and new daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Trammer in their shiny new trailer home.

Of current interest is our Friday night prayer meetings conducted by one of the boys. There is also an influx of new and used automobile trading. Also of great interest is the fact that Harold Long is going to be a daddy again.

AN OLD ARABIAN PROVERB

He that knoweth not and knoweth not that he knoweth not is a fool. Show him!

He that knoweth not, and knoweth that he knoweth not, is a child. Teach him!

He that knoweth, and knoweth not that he knoweth, is asleep. Wake him!

He that knoweth, and knoweth that he knoweth, is a wise man. Follow him!

—Copied.