Litton Leads Dogs In Home Opener Against Newberry

By RICHARD GRANGER

Newberry's Indians will furnish the opposition when the Bulldogs open the 1971 season at home Saturday night at 7:30. The South Carolina eleven will come to Boiling Springs with revenge in mind since the Bulldogs scored a 7-0 win last year in Newberry. It was the first senior college win for the Bulldogs.

Coach George Litton will be in his second year as head Bulldog at Gardner-Webb. Even though his first year's work showed only two wins in ten games things look much brighter for the 1971 season.

Litton does have problems—mainly a shortage of offensive linemen. Overall depth injuries hurt the Bulldog cause drastically last year and should there be as many this year, it could be another long season for Bulldog followers.

Coach Litton is blessed with one of the finest signal callers in the two Carolinas. Junior Ray Hannon ranked in the top 20 last year in NAIA status. He closed out the season with a game total offensive average of more than 175 yards and threw 14 touchdown passes.

Two ends, junior Ken Reid, of Charlotte, 6-5, 202 pounds and senior Meredith Scruggs, of Belmont, 194 and 6-3 will be on the receiving end of most Hannon's passes.

The running game will be helped this year by Eric Caldwell, Daryl Corley, Dennis Dukes, Scot Thompson and Lou Hester. Hester is presently recovering from a shoulder injury.

Up front Litton is expected to call Steve Phillips and Mike Cherry at tackles; while two brothers, Tim Livingston, a sophomore and Heath, a junior will be at guard. The center will be Gary Blackwell.

The defense should be tough, but the defensive backfield will have to make improvements. Two fine defensive backs, senior Tommy Way and Steve Carwell will be seeing plenty of action. Hardin Davis, Coleman Hunt and Mike Godfrey will try to hold the front line for the Bulldogs.

GARDNER-WEBB COLLEGE FOOTBALL TEAM

May Named Defense Coach

Richard May, a veteran defensive football coach, has been named defense coordinator at Gardner-Webb College. May served this past year as defense coordinator at Guilford College.

Head football coach George Litton and May are not strangers to each other. May and Litton were together at Lees-McRae Junior College in Banner Elk. Litton was head coach and May was one of his assistants. May went from Banner Elk to Carson-Newman.

May is a graduate of East Tennessee State University where he earned both his bachelor's and his master's degrees. He has also done additional graduate work at the University of Tennessee.

Litton and May played college football together while both attended East Tennessee. They have been close friends for a number of years.

In commenting on the addition of May to the football staff Coach Litton said: "We are very pleased to have Richard join us at Gardner-Webb. His addition to the staff will give us three outstanding assistant coaches. He possesses the same characteristics as Coaches Ken Sanford and Cole Proctor. I feel that these three men make up as fine a staff as a head coach could build in any small college today."

Coach May and his wife, Grace, have two daughters, Becky, and Beth.

TERRY FLORENCE

Golfers Have Winning Season

The Gardner-Webb team closed out its 1971 season with a record of 14 and 6, having the second un of the athletic year named to a nationally selected All-American team.

The team, coached by Dr. Garland Allen, won the regionals in District 26 at Catawba by 10 strokes over Lenoir Rhyne.

At the Nationals in Rockford, Ill., June 6-12, the Gardner-Webb golfers went steadily from tenth place to eighth on the first day, to sixth place on the second day, and finished fifth in the NAIA on the third day.

Terry Florence, a 1971 graduate, shot a 78-74-71-72 to rank him third in the NAIA competition. He was selected for the first team All-American, which makes him second All American for Gardner-Webb in its 70-71 sports season.

The Gardner-Webb Duffers include Bob Hines, Terry Florence, Greg Gault, Gary Tobbins, and Mike Stuart.

WILL THEY DO IT AGAIN?

Last year Bernie Sanders booted a 51 yard field goal in the second quarter of the Newberry game and the G. W. defense made it stick for a 3-0 win. This was Gardner-Webb's first win over a senior college. In the Newberry game this Saturday, will Gardner-Webb be able to show their strength again? Give the Bulldogs the support they deserve and come out Saturday. In the picture above, the center is Gary Blackwell, with Bernie Sanders kicking and Tommy Way holding.
