

THE PILOT

Gardner-Webb College

December 16, 1986

BOILING SPRINGS, NORTH CAROLINA

Now Is The Time For Making Up Convocation Credits!

by Roberta Borden

Have you exceeded your rour cuts in Convocation? If so, you better listen closely because you will have to make-up for missed time prior to your graduation! As of the Fall Semester, 1984 convocation attendance has been being enforced by the College Convocation Committee. "Make-ups Have you exceeded your four allowed Convocation Committee. "Make-ups stress the value that the college plastress the value that the ces on convocation time, says college ces on convocation time, Since we (the says college minister Monk Ashley. "Since we (the college) felt it was unfair to patently deny graduation because of missed convocation time, a make-up program was designed."

The program, depending on the amount The program, depending on the amount of time being made up, consists of activities which are similar in hourlength to convocation time missed. Students are required to listen to audio tapes of convocation, do book reports, or attend other cultural events on campus. "The best assignments jibe with a student's interests," adds Ashley.

If you have received a letter from ests," adds Ashley.

If you have received a letter from Dean John Drayer notifying you of a need to make up missed convocation time, the best time to act is now, as Monk Ashley relates that the months nearest to graduation are always filled with people trying to make-up required time. "Since we started the program 114 individuals have been required time. "Since we started the program 114 individuals have been involved in make-up activities, 61 of which were concentrated in the Spring '85 semester prior to graduation.

Once you contact Dean Drayer or Monk regarding missed convocation you will be assigned to an Ashley regarding time, you will advisor who wil advisor who will guide you through your make-up. Those currently serving in this capacity are Dr. Robert Morgan, Dr. Vann Murrell and Dr. Bob

Decker We have smaller amounts of people cutting now, " adds Ashley. "Most of the people who are having to make-up the people who are having to make-up time are those who were caught in the transition between non-enforced and enforced convocation attendance. If you have convocation time to make-up, remember, there's no time like the present.

Big Pizza Party

by Alisha Watson During exam week on Tuesday, December 16, the faculty and staff faculty and staff will show their appreciation to eciation to students by hosting a pizza party from 10:00-11:30 p.m. in the dining hall. Soft drinks and pizza will be served, and cartoons will be shown.

The faculty and staff members will in participate serving students

The pizza will provided by Pizza Hut and there Shelby, be will selection thick, thin crust or deep pan pizza.

Reservations are required.

Trustee Chair Heads Efforts In Major Campaign Bridge

Roberta L.

is bridge constructed being Gardner-Webb College. Oh, you haven't noticed any waterways on campus? Well, this bridge is special. How, you special. How, you ask? This bridge is a bridge to the future; the future of Gardner-Webb College. The Spring of 1987 will kick off multi-million dollar fund raising campaign designed to benefit Gardner-Webb Titled College. "A Bridge to the Future", this campaign effort is intended to bring approximately $5 million to G-W. National Chairman of the fundraising campaign, Lloyd Bost of Shelby, Bost of Shelby, and former presi-dent of Bost of Bost the Bakeries, says "Most campaigns are spread over a three-year time span, which is the raised rich the institufunds that can be professorships and utilized for cam- faculty enrichpus renovations (which include the renovations dormitory facili-ties and Hamrick building) as well as increasing the endowment of the Bost cites approximate figures speaking crenovations and "About" speaking of campus says, $2,450,000 to be rai needs be raised Cleveland County with $1 million allocated for dorm repairs, $900,000 for the renovation of Hamrick Hall, $260,000 for the renovation of the CID building, and $90,000 for an observatory building.

Although these improvements and Although additions are substantial in and of themselves, places emphasis on the importance of college's endowment. $1 million projected $3 time million be for case with this endowment will be one." Bost goes channeled into on to tell how the scholarships which money which will will enable and be raised will en be raised will en case with the scholarships which money which will will enable and be raised will en case with the scholarships which will be cased with the scholarships which will be considered with the scholarships with the scholarships which will be considered with the scholarships with into attending Gtion. W. $500,000 will go to program high on the list improvements which of the college's will hopefully priorities are include endowed

> Mystery In Mid-East Stirs Controversy

Authorities in Rome today announced that investigations are being conducted to settle disputes of Jewish authority in Jerusalem. Reports have surfaced concerning a mystery figure operating from a village barnyard. The man may have gathered a number of viofollowers.

Traditional laws have been challenged and there have been reports of strange lights, rioting, and ot distrubances in this volatile area. and other

One of three visitors to the region seems to have knowledge of the events, continued on page 6

Final Exam Schedule

FALL, 1986

	8:00-	11:00-	14:00-
	10:00	13:00	16:00
Monday	9:00 MVF	16:05 MW	11:00 MWF
December 15	Classes	Classes	Classes
Tuesday	10:25 TT	14:40 TT	8:00 TT
December 16	Classes	Classes	Classes
Wednesday	10:00 MWF	14:00 MW	8:00 MWF
December 17	Classes	Classes	Classes
Thursday	13:15 TT	11:50 TT	13:00 MWF
December 18	Classes	Classes	Classes
Friday	12:00 MWF	15:25 MW
December 19	Classes	Classes	