Looking for a Career in Law Enforcement?

POLICE OFFICER OPPORTUNITIES with
THE CHESTERFIELD COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRIDE, SERVICE, PROFESSIONALISM

Today's law enforcement professional faces the challenges of policing in the 21st Century. The Chesterfield County Police Department is a proactive police agency that constantly enhances its services to meet those challenges. If you are concerned that the police agencies you are considering as your future employer are not prepared for these challenges, look no further. At the Chesterfield County Police Department we understand that you are our future.

Chesterfield County is a suburb of Richmond, Virginia, the capitol of our state, and it offers all of the positive features of suburban living while maintaining one of the lowest crime rates in the state.

We accept applications on an on-going basis and will start our next Police Officer Basic Training Academy on June 26, 2000. We will be administering the written examination at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington, Social and Behavioral Sciences Building, Room 202 on Wednesday, March 29 at 3:00 p.m.

You must be a US citizen 21 years of age by the completion of our training academy, with a safe driving record. Must also possess 2 years (60 credits) of college, or active military or law enforcement experience. Must not possess any conviction of felonies and/or habitual misdemeanors as well as successfully undergo and extensive background investigation and interview process. Applicants will be eliminated for significant omissions or falsifications on any documents prepared in conjunction with the application process.

Interested? If you possess above listed qualifications we encourage your participation in our selection process. Plan to take our written examination on the above date and call Police Personnel at (804) 748-1547 to schedule your test time.
