Wrestling Team Opens Season With Pfeiffer College Tonight

Tonight the 10-man wrestling team will represent St Andrews at Pfeiffer College in the team's first match of the season; their next engagement will be against William & Mary's junior varsity Feb. 9. Prof. William Morgan and Coach James Ollis have worked closely with these boys to get them in shape, with the assistance of team captain Dick Knowles.

The team consists of Woody Woodard, co-captain; Larry Varner, Fleming Jones, Nick Hobbie, Dave Caraker, Jack Hansel, Lee Yarborough, Pascal Stewart, and Charles Yeargen.

Some of the boys wrestled last year at PJC, but most are new to the mat. In spite of their inexperience, to quote Captain Knowles, "The spirit and effort of a winning team has been shown in the workouts and exercises."

Scientific wrestling is something of an art as well as a sport. Scientific wrestling depends upon speed, skill, and ability to outsmart one's opponent, and does not rely on painful pressure holds.

Captain Knowles has expressed his appreciation to the team for its hard work and looks forward to gaining valuable experience this season. He adds, "We hope to come back from AAU with a few medals to our credit."

We Won One !!

Seven proved to be the magic number as the Knights of St. Andrews recorded their first varsity basketball win. The feeling was in the air as the Knights took the court for the second half in Charlotte that a victory was within reach if the Knights could maintain their first-half pace. As the final buzzer sounded, St. Andrews was on top in points for the first time this season 84 to 73. Behind 3 points at half time, St. Andrews kept right behind the Charlotte College five and pulled out ahead in the last minute of play.

The Knights played as a team and won as a team playing together should win. Cecil Chewning, Joe Speaks, and Bill Clark played heads up ball under the boards and in the scoring department for the Knights.

Defeated Again

The Camels of Campbell College proved their height and team experience were too great for the Knights to overcome as they downed St. Andrews by 20 points in the second meeting of these teams on the season. Campbell is having another fine year with only two defeats to mar their record.

The Knights fought an up-hill battle all the way. The Knights were determined after their fine showing against Georgia State in their last outing. This marked the sixth straight loss for Coach Rufus Hackney's young Knights. Although never really in the game, the Knights tried hard to regain the composure that makes a team a threat.

In the backcourt George Britt, Jerry Dawson, and Joe Buckner set up the plays and helped control the fast guards of the Charlotte five.

Georgia State Edges Knights

The Knights made their first out-of-state trip, one that proved St. Andrews is on the verge of its first basketball victory. Coach Rufus Hackney took the Knights on a three-day trip to Atlanta, Georgia, and almost came back with a victory. In losing to Georgia State, 88-84, the Knights gained an important step in overall team morale. The two equally balanced teams played nip-and-tuck throughout the contest, with St. Andrews leading at half-time, 47-46.

In the scoring department Joe Buckner took high man honors for the game and for the Knights with 26 points. Bill Clark scored all of his 16 points in the first half except for 2 points he scored before leaving the game in the first few minutes of the second half. Joe Speaks and George Britt had 10 points apiece, while Jim Bunnell and Jerry Dawson had 9 and 5 points respectively. Rounding out the scoring for the Knights was Cecil Chewning with 6 points before leaving the game early because of a foot injury.
