

The Lance

Dormitories, Publications Choose Heads For '63-'64

Dorm Officers Elected For 1963-64 Term

All students who have had room reservations confirmed for next year met in their respective dorms Thursday evening to elect officers for the 1963-64 school year. Each dorm, with the exception of Winston-Salem and Concord, elected a dorm president, a representative to the Senate, Student Center Board and Student Christian Council.

Elected were:
Albemarle — Janice Thornton, president; Susan Opdyke, Senate representative; Rebecca Carter, SCB representative; and Jaynelle Goodnight, SCC representative.

Granville — Shaw Caddell, president; Donnie Rankin, Senate representative; Ilene Douglas, SCB representative; and Mary Jane Bigger, SCC representative.

Mecklenburg — Jim Moore, president; Eddie Howard, Senate representative; Bill Darden, SCB representative; and Norwood Maddy, SCC representative.

Orange — Gill Rock, president; Marjorie Rehm, Senate representative; Simmons Hendrick, SCB representative; and Sue Ellen Love, SCC representative.

Wilmington — Peggy Dillard, president; Betty Sue Murphy, Senate representative; Judy Jessup, SCB representative; and Carolyn Clark, SCC representative.

Concord and Winston-Salem dorms are reserved for incoming freshmen, and officers for these dorms will be elected by the freshmen early next year.

Knights Take 2 of 3 Games

The Knights won two of the three games they played on the roads last week. They won over Belmont Abby and Carolina Wesleyan. Earlier during the season, Belmont Abby beat the Knights 4-0.

St. Andrews 160 002 100
Belmont Abby 400 001 010
At Belmont, Doug Maxwell picked up his second win of the season, beating the Abby, 10 to 6. Belmont scored 4 quick runs in the first only to see the Knights retaliate by getting 6 in the second. Doug showed brilliant form, striking out 11 men. Leading hitters for the Knights were Pete Stephens (3-4), Doug Maxwell (3-5), Bobby Crenshaw (2-3) and Ward Anderson (2-5). Ward Anderson also had five RBI's.

St. Andrews 000 000 000
Fredrick 003 002 11
In his home state, George Britt continued his bad luck by losing to Fredrick. Connie Little, catching his second game, led the hitting with 2 for 4. The Knights only got 5 hits during the entire day.
St. Andrews 251 020 010
Carolina Wesleyan 010 000 010

Publications Board Selects Editors

The recently formed Publications Board met for the first time last Tuesday, and appointed editors of The Lance and The Lamp and Shield for the 1963-64 school year.

Charles Quick was appointed as editor of The Lance, and Rebecca McLeod was appointed editor of The Lamp and Shield.

Candidates considered were those nominated by students, in accordance with a notice which was distributed to each student.

Present and voting at the meeting were five members of the nine-member board: Dean Hester; Mr. Leon Gatlin, advisor to The Lance; Harriet Johnston, editor of The Lamp and Shield; Charles Quick, editor of The Lance; and Angus McQueen, business manager for The Lance.

Mr. Jack Abernathy, Development Officer and advisor to The Lamp and Shield, was elected chairman. As chairman, Mr. Abernathy did not vote.

The editors will appoint their business managers and certain members of their staffs before the end of the semester.

SGA Convention

Drinking Rule,
Academic Probation
To Be Studied

The second annual St. Andrews Student Government Convention will take place May 4 and 5 at Pate's Lodge near Hamlet.

Old and new student government members will join with the incoming and outgoing faculty executive committees and members of the administrative staff to evaluate this year's work and to make plans and suggest changes in next year's program.

Topics under discussion will include St. Andrews' potential membership in the National Student Association, school spirit, clarification of the drinking rule, the vending machines in the snack bar, dormitory rules, functions of the dormitory and honor councils, intra-school communications, the relation of the Cabinet, Senate, and Student Life Committee, review of the academic probation and warning rules, and student-faculty relations.

Existing conditions and proposed alterations will be studied by five work groups: academic, executive-legislative, judicial, dormitory matters, and group activities and programs.

(Continued on Page 4)

The Knights surpassed last year's winnings by whipping Carolina Wesleyan 11 to 2. Doug Maxwell fanned 9 men in notching his third win. Von Settlemyre (2-4), Norman Foxworth (2-5) and Doug Maxwell (2-5) led the hitting.

Virginia Wood To Present Senior Voice Recital On Sunday, May 5

Virginia Wood, whose senior recital will be held May 5, practices with her accompanist, Joyce Menghi of Fayetteville.

Music With International Flavor To Be Presented

A varied program of vocal music will be presented by Virginia Wood of Raeford, N. C., in her graduating recital on May 5 at 4:00 in the Liberal Arts Auditorium.

Accompanied by Joyce Menghi, Virginia's selections will include Lascia Ch'io Pianga by Handel; Cara E Dolce, Scarlatti; Bella Bocca, Pasguini; Chantons les Amours de Jean, Bergerette; Ouvre Tes Yeux Bleus, Massenet; and an Aria, "Non so piu cosa son," The Marriage of Figaro, Mozart

After a short intermission the program will conclude with Ich Grolle Nicht, Schumann; "Verborghenheit," Morihe Songs, No. 12, Wolf; The Lark, Dvorak; Corals, Treharne; and The Little French Clock, Kountz.

In her Senior Recital Virginia represents the studio of Miss Eleanor Hammet. She has also studied under Mrs. Annaliese Schober Fiddler, Mr. Lawrence Skinner, and Mr. E. Blanchard of Meredith College.

The recitalist is majoring in music education and minoring in voice. She tentatively plans to teach next year in an Annapolis, Maryland, Junior High School.

Prof. Williams Takes Part In Arts Festival

Mr. John E. Williams, associate professor of organ will be one of the featured artists during the Arts Festival in Fayetteville, N. C. Mr. Williams will play a recital on the 3-manual Casavant organ at Highland Presbyterian Church on Friday evening, May 10, at 8:00 p.m.

The Arts Festival is sponsored by the Jaycees of Fayetteville and will include a play by the Little Theater, an evening of opera scenes, a program by the Fayetteville Symphony, and guided tours of churches and homes.

Mr. Williams program will include works by Purcell, Haydn, Bach, Reubke, Punuis, de Malingneau, Vardell and Mulet.

Ellis Signs Acting Contract

Charles Ellis has signed a contract to play the part of Andrew Jackson in the outdoor drama "UNTO THESE HILLS" at Cherokee, N. C. Charles has appeared in "Our Town" in the role of Mr. Webb; "Arsenic and Old Lace" in the role of Teddy Roosevelt; "Surpressed Desires," in the role of Mr. Brewster. Recently at the 40th Annual Drama Festival at Chapel Hill, sponsored by the Carolina Drama Association. Charles received a Distinguished Acting award for his performance of Mooney in "Mooney's Kid Don't Cry".

Charles will be playing the role of Alfred in the upcoming Highland Player production "My Three Angels", which will be presented May 9th, 10th and 11th in the Student Center main lounge.

coming soon
The Affair
by invitation only . . .

Frat Hears Talk

Phi Beta Lambda Fraternity members will hear a talk on "Management" at their 7:00 p.m. meeting Wednesday. Mr. John G. Ornsby, manager of the J. C. Penney Company in Fayetteville will speak to members and any interested persons in the L.A. auditorium.

'Down In The Valley' Set For Friday, Saturday

A month full of musical entertainment by students and faculty will open with Kurt Weill's folk opera — "Down in the Valley" — Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4.

Musical direction of the opera is by Miss Eleanore Hammett, voice professor, and staging is by Arthur McDonald, drama professor. The opera begins at 8:15 each evening in the Liberal Arts Auditorium. There will be an admission fee of fifty cents.

Leading female voices in "Down in the Valley" are senior Nyal Womble, who will sing the leading role of Jenny Parson on Friday night, and Martha Kinney, also a senior, taking this part for Saturday night's performance.

Bill Abrams, sophomore, will portray Brack Weaver, hero of the opera, and freshman Walter Boyce will narrate both performances. Other members of the cast include Bob Gant, playing Thomas Bouche; Larry Bowers, guard; David Porter, Peters; Richard McCord, Jennie's father; and Jack Castle, a man.

The story of "Down in the Valley" is simplicity itself. It is the love story of Brack Weaver and Jennie Parsons. Brack, a condemned man, escapes from prison in order to see his love.

In a vision of the past, Brack and Jennie live over the time they first met at prayer meeting and Brack took Jennie home. Afraid to declare his love for her, Brack asks Jennie to the Saturday night dance at Shadow Creek, but Jennie's father forbids it. He wants his daughter to marry Thomas Bouche, to whom he is in debt, but Jennie refuses.

Instead she joins Brack at the dance. Bouche gets drunk and picks a fight with Brack, pulls a knife but, in the struggle, is killed by Brack. Before he is captured and brought back to jail, Brack spends his last

(Continued on Page 2)

Monday Meeting Will Be Required

A required meeting of the entire student body will be held in the Student Center Cafeteria on Monday, May 6 at 7:00 p.m.

Included on the agenda are the presentation of the St. Andrews Alma Mater, a report from the Handbook Committee, a report from the Orientation Committee regarding plans for next year's "Serf Week," the presentation of charters to various school organizations, and a Treasurer's report by Paul Grubbs.

Attendance will be checked.