WF Plans Synod Meet

What are Christian students called to do for the cause of world peace? Can we stand for a Biblical view of sex in the face of new sexual freedom on campus? What is the Church's mission in view of rising unemployment, "pockets of poverty," and increasingly complex economic systems, including automation? What is the image of the Christian Church on campus? What is the mission of the Church or both church-and state-related campuses? Can you answer these questions? An answer to these and other pertinent questions will be sought at the Spring Westminster Fellowship Synod Conference. Those attending will face, discuss, and act upon the issues.

The retreat will be held at Camp New Hope on March 7-8. Cost per person has been set at $3.50. Contact Heath Rada, Ext. 59, or Slovenia Summerville, Ext. 34, for application forms if you are interested in attending this conference.

CC To Sponsor

Harold Warehime

Harold Warehime of Louisville Theological Seminary will be on our campus February 29-March 2.

His visit is sponsored by the Christian Council which has planned various activities to allow all St. Andrews students to meet and talk with him.

A forum will be Saturday, February 29, at 3 p.m., in the small lounge of the Student Center. The topic will be "The Christian Life Program on a Church-Related Campus."

Sunday evening at 5 there will be a supper discussion in the small dining room. Mr. Warehime will discuss "Pre-Occupation with Sex."

St. Andrews students are invited to attend these activities and any others which will allow them to meet Mr. Warehime.

'The Taming Of The Shrew' To Commemorate Shakespeare

The Highland Players are commemorating the tercentary anniversary of William Shakespeare with the presentation of his risqué comedy, "The Taming of the Shrew," March 3-7 in the Liberal Arts Auditorium.

Flora Macdonald Campus Sold

Papers were signed at Red Springs Wednesday aimed at the opening next September of a preparatory school for girls on the old Flora Macdonald College campus.

The new school will be named in honor of Dr. Charles Graves Vardell, founder and first president of Flora Macdonald College. The first president of the new school will be Dr. William P. Matthews, a faculty member at High Point College.

Officials expect to go over the top in raising money needed for renovations and improvements.

Congratulations

Congratulations to the Student Center Board on the success of their second poll concerning the Concert - Lecture Series. This time a total of 403 questionnaires were returned. The questionnaire was detailed and specific, and the information gained from this survey will definitely be used in planning next year's Series.

Prof. Carl von Kleist is director.

Bianca (Sue Scarborough) sweet, mild and gentle, cannot be married until a husband is found for her fiery sister, Kathrina (Barbara Bolton). Petruchio (Richard McCord), is a self-willed, independent man who tames the Shrew by feeding her some of her own shrewishness.

David Fisher plays the role of Baptista Minola, John Marion portrays Vincentio, with David Porter as Gremio.

As a comedy the play is a blend of witty farcial and character elements. Disguise is one of the major devices used. A second plot sustains a comic effect from the characters of Petruchio and Kathrina.

Assistant director is Lillian Phillips. Costume designer is Prof. Arthur McDonald.

The Publications Board is now accepting recommendations for editor of THE LANCE. The editor is appointed by the Board. Requirements for this position are minimum 3.0 grade average, one year's prior service on THE LANCE staff, and be a rising Junior or Senior.

Names may be submitted to Mr. Jack Abernathy in the Development Office, or Charles Quick, 131 Orange Hall.
